

Patty the milk maid was carrying her milk, in a pail, on her head to go to the market.

On her way she was thinking of what she would do with the money she would get for her milk. She would buy a new frock and hat, so all the young men would talk to her.

She knew this would make Polly Shaw jealous. She didn't care and tossed her head, as she did this, the pail fell off and her milk spilt everywhere.

One afternoon in fall 2015 Cristina Devereaux Ramírez's mother called and with a tone of urgency in her voice asked her to come to the house and take a look at something she had discovered when she was sorting through boxes in the attic. When Ramírez arrived she found her family sifting through papers in an old vegetable box reading some of the more than 750 pages of Spanish language poems short stories fables and dichos. Ramírez's maternal grandmother Ramona González had written some pieces were works in progress complete with word and phrase strikethroughs and handwritten notes in the margins while others were neatly typed prose or what might have been final drafts. None of González's writings had seen the outside of that box for decades at least since 1995 when the family matriarch passed away. González or Doña Ramona as she was often called was born in 1906 in the El Paso border barrio of Chihuahuita sometimes referred to as the Ellis Island of the Southwest. Her writing celebrates the rich Mexican American culture of Chihuahuita a neighborhood the National Trust for Historic Preservation identified in 2016 as one of America's most endangered historic places. A mother corner grocery store owner published writer and community activist González was one of the few Tejanas profiled in Worthy Mothers of Texas 1776-1976. A Story of Stories from a Texas Border Barrio Ramírez chronicles the life of her abuela with the care of a granddaughter and with the eye of a scholar analyzes selections from González's work and its significance to El Paso history Chicano literature border barrio folklore and cross border civic movements in the mid twentieth century.
