Fables End Completeness And Closure In Rhetorical Fiction:

Fable's End: Completeness and Closure in Rhetorical Fiction, 1974 Closure in Biblical Narrative Susan Zeelander, 2011-12-23 Multiple and sometimes unexpected forms of closure in biblical narratives bring their stories to satisfactory close Knowledge of these conventions and how they affect their stories is valuable to students of Bible and of narrative Routledge Encyclopedia of Narrative Theory David Herman, Manfred Jahn, Marie-Laure Ryan, 2010-06-10 The past several decades have seen an explosion of interest in narrative with this multifaceted object of inquiry becoming a central concern in a wide range of disciplinary fields and research contexts As accounts of what happened to particular people in particular circumstances and with specific consequences stories have come to be viewed as a basic human strategy for coming to terms with time process and change However the very predominance of narrative as a focus of interest across multiple disciplines makes it imperative for scholars teachers and students to have access to a comprehensive reference resource Narrative Dynamics Brian Richardson, 2002 This anthology brings together essential essays on major facets of narrative dynamics that is the means by which narratives traverse their often unlikely routes from beginning to end It includes the most widely cited and discussed essays on narrative beginnings temporality plot and emplotment sequence and progression closure and frames The text is designed as a basic reader for graduate courses in narrative and critical theory across disciplines including literature drama and theatre and film Narrative Dynamics includes such classic exponents as E M Forster on story and plot Vladimir Propp on the structure of the folktale R S Crane on plot Boris Tomashevsky on story plot and motif M M Bakhtin on the chronotope and Gerard Genette on narrative time Richardson highlights essential feminist essays by Nancy K Miller on plot and plausibility Rachel Blau Duplessis on closure and Susan Winnett on narrative and desire These are complimented by newer pieces by Susan Stanford Friedman on spatialization and Robyn Warhol on serial fiction Other major contributions include Edward Said on beginnings Hayden White on historical narrative Peter Brooks on plot Paul Ricoeur on time D A Miller on closure James Phelan on progression and Jacques Derrida on the frame Recent essays from the perspective of cultural studies postmodernism and artificial intelligence bring this collection right up to the present A Companion to Literary Theory David H. Richter, 2018-02-16 Introduces readers to the modes of literary and cultural study of the previous half century A Companion to Literary Theory is a collection of 36 original essays all by noted scholars in their field designed to introduce the modes and ideas of contemporary literary and cultural theory Arranged by topic rather than chronology in order to highlight the relationships between earlier and most recent theoretical developments the book groups its chapters into seven convenient sections I Literary Form Narrative and Poetry II The Task of Reading III Literary Locations and Cultural Studies IV The Politics of Literature V Identities VI Bodies and Their Minds and VII Scientific Inflections Allotting proper space to all areas of theory most relevant today this comprehensive volume features three dozen masterfully written chapters covering such subjects as Anglo American New Criticism Chicago Formalism Russian Formalism Derrida and Deconstruction Empathy Affect Studies Foucault and Poststructuralism Marx and Marxist Literary Theory Postcolonial Studies Ethnic Studies Gender Theory Freudian Psychoanalytic Criticism Cognitive Literary Theory Evolutionary Literary Theory Cybernetics and Posthumanism and much more Features 36 essays by noted scholars in the field Fills a growing need for companion books that can guide readers through the thicket of ideas systems and terminologies Presents important contemporary literary theory while examining those of the past The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Literary Theory will be welcomed by college and university students seeking an accessible and authoritative guide to the complex and often intimidating modes of literary and cultural study of the previous half century Literature as National Institution

Vassilis Lambropoulos, 2014-07-14 This book examines how the practices of criticism establish a particular domain of knowledge the truth of literature As a discussion of the ideology and politics of literary knowledge it concentrates on constitutive elements of its production the intertextuality of writing the mediatedness of understanding the formative role of reading expectations the enabling presence of relevant literacy the conditioning horizon of expectations and the economic character of axiology The main argument advanced is that criticism by constructing literature as an ethnic heritage and communal treasure participated in the invention of a national identity necessary for the legitimization of the modern state Case studies have been selected from the highly relevant area of contemporary Greek criticism Microscopic investigations of its dominant sites mechanisms and discourses reveal that the field emerged in response to concrete political needs and provided the state with a literary tradition as proof of its national composition purity continuity and autonomy The construction and canonization of texts as art works invariably employed as a measure of aesthetic and ultimately moral merit the Greekness of the literary sign The book as a genealogical approach to the neglected national role of literature should be of interest to specialists in literary theory comparative literature Greek studies and cultural studies Originally published in 1988 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The Case For a Humanistic Poetics Daniel R. Schwarz, 1990-06-18 An attempt to define a humanistic and pluralistic ideology of reading which takes recent theory into account By the same author as The Humanistic Heritage Critical Theories on the English Novel from James through Hillis Miller and Reading Joyce's Ulysses

Crimes of Writing Susan Stewart, 1991-08-15 From the origins of modern copyright in early eighteenth century culture to the efforts to represent nature and death in postmodern fiction this pioneering book explores a series of problems regarding the containment of representation Stewart focuses on specific cases of crimes of writing the forgeries of George Psalmanazar the production of fakelore the ballad scandals of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries the imposture of Thomas

Chatterton and contemporary legislation regarding graffiti and pornography In this way she emphasizes the issues which arise once language is seen as a matter of property and authorship is viewed as a matter of originality Finally Stewart demonstrates that crimes of writing are delineated by the law because they specifically undermine the status of the law itself the crimes illuminate the irreducible fact that law is written and therefore subject to temporality and interpretation

Valerius Flaccus' Argonautica Debra Hershkowitz,1998 Valerius Flaccus unfinished and unjustly neglected epic recounting the Argonauts quest for the Golden Fleece and the early stages of the doomed love affair of Jason and Medea has been relegated to the outer fringes of classical scholarship for many years A full length study devoted to the Argonautica has not been published in English for over 100 years This book seeks to address this balance Dr Hershkowitz aims to provide readers who have not yet encountered Valerius Flaccus work with a general introduction to this multi faceted epic poem At the same time the author offers those already familiar with the Argonautica an in depth re evaluation of the work contextualizing it within both an historical and literary framework focusing in particular on its intertextual relationship with Apollonius Argonautica and Vergil s Aeneid The Cambridge Introduction to Narrative H. Porter Abbott,2020-12-03 Helps readers understand what narrative is how it is constructed and how it changes when the medium changes Feminism, Utopia, and Narrative Libby Falk Jones,Sarah McKim Webster Goodwin,1990 The Temporal Mechanics of the Fourth Gospel Douglas Charles Estes,2008-03-31 Spiritual but broken theological but flawed these are the words critics use to describe the Gospel of John Compared to the Synoptics John s version of the life of Jesus seems scrambled especially in the area of time and chronology But what if John s textual and temporal flaws have more to do with our implicit assumptions about time than a text that is truly flawed This book responds to that question by reinventing narrative temporality in light of modern physics and applying this alternative temporal lens to the Fourth Gospel From the singularity in the epic prologue to the narrative warping of event like objects this work explodes the elemental temporalities simmering below the surface of a spiritual yet superior Gospel text Framing Borders in Literature and Other Media ,2006-01-01 This book is both a contribution to an interdisciplinary study of literature and other media and a pioneering application of cognitive and frame theoretical approaches to these fields In the temporal media a privileged place for the coding of cognitive frames are the beginnings while in spatial media physical borders take over many framing functions This volume investigates forms and functions of such framing spaces from a transmedial perspective by juxtaposing and comparing the framing potential of individual media and works After an introductory theoretical essay which aims to clarify basic concepts the volume presents eighteen contributions by scholars from various disciplines who deal with individual media The first section is dedicated to framing in or through the visual arts and includes discussions of the illustrations of medieval manuscripts the practice of framing pictures from the Middle Ages to Magritte and contemporary American art as well as framings in printmaking and architecture The second part deals with literary texts and ranges from studies centred on framings in frame stories to essays focussing on the use of paratextual textual and non verbal media in the framings of classical medieval and modern German and American narrative literature moreover it includes studies on defamiliarized framings e g by Julio Cort zar and Jasper Fforde as well as an essay on end framing practices Sections on framings in film including the trailers of Tolkien s The Lord of the Rings and in music operatic overtures and Schumann s piano pieces provide perspectives on further media The volume is of relevance to students and scholars from various fields intermedia studies cognitive approaches to the media literary and film studies history of art and musicology

Dostoevsky and the Ethics of Narrative Form Greta

Matzner-Gore,2020-06-15 Three questions of novelistic form preoccupied Fyodor Dostoevsky throughout his career how to build suspense how to end a narrative effectively and how to distribute attention among major and minor characters For Dostoevsky these were much more than practical questions about novelistic craft they were ethical questions as well Dostoevsky and the Ethics of Narrative Form traces Dostoevsky s indefatigable investigations into the ethical implications of his own formal choices Drawing on his drafts notebooks and writings on aesthetics Greta Matzner Gore argues that Dostoevsky wove the moral and formal questions that obsessed him into the fabric of his last three novels Demons The Adolescent and The Brothers Karamazov In so doing he anticipated some of the most pressing debates taking place in the study of narrative ethics today

Theoretical Schools and Circles in the Twentieth-Century Humanities Marina Grishakova,Silvi

Salupere,2015-04-10 Schools and circles have been a major force in twentieth century intellectual movements They fostered circulation of ideas within and between disciplines thus altering the shape of intellectual inquiry This volume offers a new perspective on theoretical schools in the humanities both as generators of conceptual knowledge and as cultural phenomena The structuralist semiotic phenomenological and hermeneutical schools and circles have had a deep impact on various disciplines ranging from literary studies to philosophy historiography and sociology The volume focuses on a set of loosely interrelated groups with a strong literary linguistic and semiotic component but extends to the fields of philosophy and history the interdisciplinary conjunctions arising from a sense of conceptual kinship It includes chapters on unstudied or less studied groups such as Tel Aviv School of poetics and semiotics or the research group Poetics and Hermeneutics The volume presents a significant supplement to the standard historical accounts of literary critical and related theory in the twentieth century It enhances and complicates our understanding of the twentieth century intellectual and academic history by showing schools and circles in the state of germination dialogue controversy or decline in their respective historical and institutional settings while reaching simultaneously beyond those dense settings to the new cultural and ideological situations of the twenty first century

Discovering Gilgamesh Vybarr Cregan-Reid,2015-11-01 In 1872 a young archaeologist at the British Museum made a tremendous discovery While he was working his way through a Mesopotamian slush pile George Smith a self taught expert in ancient languages happened upon a Babylonian version of Noah s Flood His research suggested this Deluge Tablet pre dated the writing of Genesis by a millennium or more Smith went on to translate what later became The Epic of Gilgamesh perhaps the oldest and most complete work of literature from any culture Against the backdrop of innovative readings of a range of paintings novels histories and photographs by figures like Dickens Eliot James Dyce Turner Macaulay and Carlyle this book demonstrates the Gordian complexity of the Victorians relationship with history while also seeking to highlight the Epic s role in influencing models of time in late Victorian geology Discovering Gilgamesh will be of interest to readers students and researchers in literary studies Victorian studies history intellectual history art history and archaeology

Story-Telling Techniques in the Arabian Nights David Pinault,2023-11-27 This work comprises a literary comparison of surviving alternative versions of selected narrative cycles from the Nights Pinault draws on the published Arabic editions especially Bulaq MacNaghten and the fourteenth century Galland text recently edited by Mahdi as well as unpublished Arabic manuscripts from libraries in France and North Africa The study demonstrates that significantly different versions have survived of some of the most famous tales from the Nights Pinault notes how individual manuscript redactors employed and sometimes modified formulaic phrases and traditional narrative topoi in ways consonant with the themes emphasized in particular versions of a tale He also examines the redactors modification of earlier sources Arabic chronicles and Islamic religious treatises geographers accounts and medieval legends for specific narrative goals Comparison of the narrative structure of diverse story collection also sheds new light on the relationship of the embedded subordinate narrative to the overarching frame tale All cited passages from the Nights and other Arabic story collections have been fully translated into English

Tilting at Mortality David M. Craig,2000 This work considers Joseph Heller s career and examines each of his novels including Closing Time It pursues two complementary tracks first it explores the evolution of Heller s treatment of human morality and second it delineates Heller s artistic developments as a novelist
