The Philosophy of Giambattista Vico Benedetto Croce,1913 The Canadian Who's who ,1998 Black Tongue Antonio D'Alfonso,1983 Notes and Queries: a Medium of Inter-communication for Literary Men, Artists, Antiquaries, Genealogists, Etc ,1889 Fables for the Patriarchs Jowen R. Tung,2000 Exploring issues of gender in Tang dynasty literature and culture Jowen R Tung draws on a comprehensive range of historical literary and social texts to unravel the complex mechanisms of one of the world s oldest patriarchal systems The author reveals the profound damage inflicted by the masculine state ideology on its subjects by illuminating the problematics of male sexuality under the hovering phallus of the emperor the construct of male and female psyches within the pseudo monogamous household the logic of the collective unconscious in the literati s writings and a female tradition desperately trapped inside the law of the father Tung poses urgent questions about a civilization that builds itself upon the sacrifice of human lives and arrives at a rather dark interpretation of the Tang_for many the epitome of the Chinese empire As such the book moves beyond the confines of gender studies to propose a heightened agenda for feminist studies which the author argues now stand at a critical conjecture isolation booth isn't far removed from the subliminal motivations of the torturers in prisons and camps of one kind or another. I've always shuddered remembering the phrase yet it was in common use among millions of weekly viewers of big money TV quiz programmes like The 64 000 Question. These concerns are unfortunately as meaningful now as when The Isolation Booth was written in 1958.

History of the Graeco-Latin Fable Francisco Rodríguez Adrados, 1999. Spanning from Sumer to the present day, few literary genres show greater continuity throughout their history than the fable. Historical evidence reaching as far back as Antiquity supports the study of more than 500 works considered to be fables. This translation of the original Spanish standard work on the fable traces the history of the Graeco-Latin fable, investigates its origins, reconstructs lost collections from the Hellenistic Age and establishes relationships between the fablist of the Imperial Age and the study of Medieval Greek and Latin fables. Supplements at the end of each chapter have been added, giving information on a new bibliography and some new data together with references to subsequent studies.

Master and Man and Other Stories Leo Tolstoy, 2005-06-30. The ten stories collected in this volume demonstrate Tolstoy's artistic prowess displayed over five decades, experimenting with prose styles and drawing on his own experiences with humour, realism and compassion. Inspired by his experiences in the army, The Two Hussars contrasts a dashing father and his mean-spirited son. Illustrating Tolstoy's belief that art must serve a moral purpose, What Men Live By portrays an angel sent to earth to learn three existential rules of life, and Two Old Men shows a peasant abandoning his pilgrimage to the Holy Land in order to help his neighbours. And in the highly moving Master and Man, Tolstoy depicts a mercenary merchant travelling with his unprotesting servant through a blizzard to close a business deal, little realizing he may soon have to settle accounts with his maker.
