Fabrizio's Passion:

Fabrizio's Passion Antonio D'Alfonso, 2000 Fabrizio's passion is the portrait of a young man Fabrizio Notte in search of himself as an individual and as an artist Raised in a traditional Italian family in a multilingual and multicultural North American city Fabrizio struggles to find harmony between his heritage and his everyday Canadian reality Comparative Literature for the New Century Giulia De Gasperi, Joseph Pivato, 2018-09-30 Since its beginning Comparative Literature has been characterized as a discipline in crisis But its shifting boundaries are its strength allowing for collaboration and growth and illuminating a path forward In Comparative Literature for the New Century a diverse group of scholars argue for a distinct North American approach to literary studies that includes the promotion of different languages Chapters by senior scholars such as George Elliott Clarke E D Blodgett and Sneja Gunew are placed in dialogue with those by younger scholars including Dominique H tu Maria Cristina Seccia and Ndeye Fatou Ba The writers many of whom are multilingual discuss problems with translation identity and belonging the modern epic the role of tradition minority writing Francophone and Anglophone novels in Africa and politics in literature Engaging with theory history media studies psychology translation studies post colonial studies and gender studies chapters exemplify how the knowledge and tools offered by Comparative Literature can be applied in reading exploring and understanding not only literary productions but also the world at large Presenting some of the most current work being carried out by academics and scholars actively engaged in the field in Canada and abroad Comparative Literature for the New Century promotes the value of Comparative Literature as an interdisciplinary study and assesses future directions it might take Contributors include George Elliott Clarke University of Toronto Dominique H tu Alberta Montreal Monique Tschofen Ryerson Jolene Armstrong Athabasca E D Blodgett Alberta Ndeye Fatou Ba Ryerson Maria Cristina Seccia Hull Sneja Gunew UBC Deborah Saidero Udine Elizabeth Dahab CSULB Gaetano Rando Wollongong Anna Pia De Luca Udine Mark A McCutcheon Athabasca Giulia De Gasperi PEI and Joseph Pivato Athabasca The North American Italian Renaissance Kenneth Scambray, 2000 Kenneth Scambray offers the reader a critical analysis of the wide range of Italianese literature written over the last thirty years in North America These last three decades in both Canada and America can justifiably be termed a renaissance in Italian writing In Italics Antonio D'Alfonso, 1996 Poet and novelist Antonio D'Alfonso has been writing essays and giving in depth interviews for twenty years This collection contains the most important of these texts which have been reworked into a coherent entity D'Alfonso discusses the importance of ethnic awareness which he places at the antipodes of territorial nationalism for which ethnicity is too often mistaken The themes raised in this eclectic book relate to general culture language literature film and publishing he founded Guernica Editions in 1978 Though it is the Italian perspective which the author prefers to call Italic that is favored the themes and concepts developed are applicable to other cultures and countries In Italics is a polemical and unblushing defense for the individual's right to a collective Imaginary no matter which country one lives in Devils in

Paradise Pasquale Verdicchio,1997 In these essays Pasquale Verdicchio stresses the need to view the cultural works of minority groups not solely from the perspective of their immigrant roots but primarily as post emigrant products Through writings on diverse figures such as Antonio Gramsci the Super Mario Brothers or Spike Lee and on subjects that range from literature to sculpture and photography the author closes in on a possible intellectual synthesis for what might be considered the most complex question of this end of century What is the identity and place of a minority individual

A Friday in August Antonio D'Alfonso,2005 A filmmaker who makes documentaries on hit men Fabrizio Notti is invited to show his latest piece a work of fiction at a film festival in Montreal The reviews have been mixed and his family is in trouble The trip to his hometown also serves as a pretext for an existential pilgrimage towards love and belonging His search leads him on a Friday in August back through time through this vast moving landscape that is memory to his first love and ultimately to himself

Translation Effects Kathy Mezei,Sherry Simon,Luise von Flotow,2014-06-01 Much of Canadian cultural life is sustained and enriched by translation Translation Effects moves beyond restrictive notions of official translation in Canada analyzing its activities and effects on the streets in movie theatres on stages in hospitals in courtrooms in literature in politics and across caf tables The first comprehensive study of the intersection of translation and culture Translation Effects offers an original picture of translation practices across many languages and through several decades of Canadian life The book presents detailed case studies of specific events and examines the reverberation and spread of their effects Through these imaginative at times unusual investigations the contributors unveil the simultaneous invisibility and omnipresence of translation and present a cross cut of Canadian translation moments Addressing the period from the 1950s to the present and including a wide scope of examples from medical interpreting to film dubbing the essays in this book create a panoramic view of the creation of modern culture in Canada Contributors include Piere Anctil University of Ottawa H l ne Buzelin Universit de Montr al Alessandra Capperdoni Simon Fraser University Philippe Cardinal Andrew Clifford York University Beverley Curran Ren e Desjardins University of Ottawa Ray Ellenwood David Gaertner Chantal Gagnon Universit de Montr al Patricia Godbout Hugh Hazelton Jane Koustas Brock University Louise Ladouceur Universit de l Albera Gillian Lane Mercier McGill University George Lang Rebecca Margolis Sophie McCall Simon Fraser University Julie Dolmaya McDonough Denise Merkle Universit de Moncton Kathy Mezei Sorouja Moll Brian Mossop Daisy Neijmann Glen Nichols Mount Allison University Joseph Pivato Gregory Reid Robert Schwartzwald Sherry Simon Luise von Flotow University of Ottawa and Christine York

Gambling with Failure Antonio D'Alfonso, 2006 This unique look at learned and acquired cultures explores the power and weaknesses of society especially as it applies to those of Italian heritage A strong argument is made for ethnic cultural and political independence the importance of failure in relation to culture is also stressed

Would You Still Love Me? Sandy Appleyard, 2019-01-13 She fell in love when she first saw him on the television screen From that moment on Nicole vowed to become an actress Decades later when Gary and Nicole meet by chance Gary doesn't fall in love with the real Nicole Graham just a sanitized version of her Since childhood Nicole has had a cross to bear that nobody knows about except her mother Reba but she can't tell anyone anymore Through years of diaries and letters hidden in a secret trunk Gary learns the truth about his beloved As he reads the story of her life in her own words Nicole clings to life after being involved in a near fatal plane crash But will he still feel the same about her even if she survives Can he forgive her for all the lies This book was written in memory of one of my favourite actors and to remind us that not all illnesses are worn on one's shirt sleeves

Ancient Memories, Modern Identities Filippo Salvatore, 1999 Ancient Memories Modern Identities stands for pagan peasant memories in a postmodern urban North America Second and third generation authors young by adoption but old in their vision express the phenomenon of migration as both a physical displacement and indelible memory

Bound by Distance Pasquale Verdicchio, 1997 Bound by Distance takes its place among a growing body of scholarship the goal of which is to challenge the kind of thinking that reproduces the West as a stable and homogenous political and discursive entity The Italian nation with its peculiar process of formation the continuous tensions between its own northern and southern regions and its history of emigration provides an important case for complicating and reassessing concepts of national racial economic and cultural dominance The author analyzes the interactive space of the history of Italian state formation Italian subaltern literature Italian emigrant writing and the current situation of North African and Asian immigrants to Italy in order to contest the feigned homogeneity of the Italian nation and to complicate and reassess concepts of national racial economic and cultural dominance Social Pluralism and Literary History Francesco Loriggio, 1996 This book starts from the premise that emigration is a crucial concept for the understanding of recent development in criticism and literature For only when the contribution of non indigenous ethnicities is taken into account such other key phenomena as globalisation and multiculturalism or in some parts of the world colonialism or post colonialism appear in full The essays in this collection trace the presence of an Italian heritage in the literature of the United States Canada Australia Germany and ponder the consequences While some articles describe the texts or review the history of the literature produced by authors of Italian origin others address the theoretical implications or situate the discussion about authors and their works within the current critical debate The result is a volume at once informative and intellectually challenging

Pluriel Marc Charron, Seymour Mayne, Christiane Melançon, 2008-03-29 Pluriel provides a composite snapshot taken from a few particular angles of the variety of poems written in Canada over the past few decades In shaping this anthology the editors were attracted to the diverse cultural and social responses evident in the work of poets writing in English and French both across Canada and in particular in Quebec and other French speaking regions of the country Each poem is offered in its original language and in translation Bilingual Edition Duologue Antonio D'Alfonso, Pasquale Verdicchio, 1998 Literary Criticism Cultural Studies In San Diego California between June 15 and June 17 1996 two writers sit before a microphone and exchange ideas on a number of burning issues with which they have both had to contend for over twenty years Literature the politics of publishing identity culture post emigrant culture ethnicity pluriculturalism Americanism Canadianism nationalism the use of writers associations these are some of the themes that Antonio D Alfonso and Pasquale Verdicchio tackle in this casual yet intense duologue Antonio D Alfonso has published over a dozen books and works as an editor and publisher and Pasquale Verdicchio is the author of a dozen books and is head of the Writing Program in the Department of Literature at the University of California San Diego

Moving Texts, Migrating People and Minority Languages Michał Borodo, Juliane House, Wojciech Wachowski, 2017-04-19 In an age of migration in a world deeply divided through cultural differences and in the context of ongoing efforts to preserve national and regional traditions and identities the issues of language and translation are becoming absolutely vital At the heart of these complex intercultural interactions are various types of agents intermediaries and mediators including translators writers artists policy makers and publishers involved in the preservation or rejuvenation of literary and cultural repertoires languages and identities The major themes of this book include language and translation in the context of migration and diasporas migrant experiences and identities the translation from and into minority and lesser used languages but also in a broader sense the international circulation of texts concepts and people The volume offers a valuable resource for researchers in the field of translation studies lecturers teaching translation at the university level and postgraduate students in translation studies Further it will benefit researchers in migration studies linguistics literary and cultural studies who are interested in learning

This collection of essays provides a forum in which Canadian ethnicity and literature are explored from a broad range of perspectives. It reveals the many ways in which minority writers not only create a sense of community and ethnic specificity but also open avenues of discourse to adjacent communities Accademia Giose Rimanelli, 1997 After the fascinating liquid novel Benedetta in Guysterland which won the American Book Award in 1994, Giose Rimanelli now presents us with a new novel about academic life. Accademia deals with the day to day angst in a major American university. Stories of love relationships among nymphets, wives and student lovers, heterosexual and homosexual, unfold amid the struggles for personal power in the realm of higher education. Accademia is the book of one who has experienced life at its deepest levels, the book of a moralist. Giose Rimanelli gained international fame with some of his novels during the 1950s, translated from the Italian in many languages and also made into movies and radio plays. He has lived in both the U.S.A. and Canada and has taught in major universities.
