Face Forward Young African American Men In A Critical Age:

Face Forward: Young African American Men in a Critical Age Julian C. R. Okwu, 1997-03-01 Face Forward presents luminous portraits and intimate interviews with young African American men leading exemplary lives defying the statistics destroying the stereotypes This collection celebrates the achievements of thirty nine black men between the ages of 18 and 32 and offers inspiration for the generation to come Photographer Julian Okwu has traveled across the country interviewing teachers and entrepreneurs lobbyists and poets ministers and a congressman and a host of other young men They speak with a diverse range of voices experiences and attitudes but all share a concern for the African American male and a hope that future generations will benefit from their work In a world of negative images skewed statistics and racial division these young men embody an alternative reality and an eloquent argument for optimism A powerful timely social document and an elegant collection of photographic portraits Face Forward is an inspirational statement for and by black men The Crisis, 1993-03 The Crisis founded by W E B Du Bois as the official publication of the NAACP is a journal of civil rights history politics and culture and seeks to educate and challenge its readers about issues that continue to plague African Americans and other communities of color For nearly 100 years The Crisis has been the magazine of opinion and thought leaders decision makers peacemakers and justice seekers It has chronicled informed educated entertained and in many instances set the economic political and social agenda for our nation and its multi ethnic citizens The African-American Male Jacob U. Gordon, 1999-07-30 The plight of the Black male in American society has been well documented by scholars and practitioners Although Black males represent only 6 percent of the American population they represent about 40 percent of the prison population the number of Black males in prison and jail exceeds the number of Black males in higher education The homicide rates for Black males were 72.5 percent per 100 000 nearly eight times higher than for White males This bibliographic volume explores the extent to which American academia has addressed these problems It will be an invaluable resource for researchers as well as practitioners in social service programs In addition to more than 400 annotated publications the book includes a selected list of works on the African American male and a compilation of doctoral dissertations This publication will serve as a reference in public as well as academic libraries human service agencies government policymaking agencies and in academic courses in gender and ethnic studies criminal justice and social psychology Face Forward Julian C.R. Okwu, 1997-03 The First book of its kind Face Forward presents luminous portraits and intimate interviews with young African American men leading exemplary lives defying the statistics destroying the stereotypes Black Nonfiction Books, Their Authors, and Their Publishers Harry B. Dunbar, 2001-11-06 The Crisis, 1997-07 The Crisis founded by W E B Du Bois as the official publication of the NAACP is a journal of civil rights history politics and culture and seeks to educate and challenge its readers about issues that continue to plague African Americans and other communities of color For nearly 100 years The Crisis has been the magazine of opinion and thought leaders decision makers peacemakers and justice seekers It has chronicled informed educated entertained and in many instances set the economic political and social agenda for our nation and its multi ethnic citizens Ebony, 1997-06 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine Acquisitions List, African-American Collection University of Pittsburgh. University Library System, 1997 Autobiographies by Americans of Color, 1995-2000 Deborah Stuhr Iwabuchi, Rebecca Stuhr, 2003 This annotated bibliography covers the years 1995 through 2000 which saw a tremendous output of autobiographical material by Americans of color Publishers released works by prominent civil rights leaders musicians entertainers athletes as well as unsung heroes with the courage to strive for a better life This is the long awaited follow up to the first volume of the Autobiographies by Americans of Color bibliography series As I Am Julian C. R. Okwu, 1999 Calling on lessons learned from their mothers sisters families and friends the women of As I Am speak candidly about what it means to be a young African American woman This fascinating inspiring collection of interviews celebrates the achievements and passions of 36 women between the ages of 18 and 35 Photographer Julian Okwu has paired each compelling interview with a luminous duotone portrait The Crisis of the Young African American Male in the Inner Cities: Topic papers submitted to the Commission United States Commission on Civil Rights, 2000 Transcript of proceedings United States Commission on Civil Rights, 2000 Criminal Justice Forecasts of Risk Richard Berk, 2012-04-06 Machine learning and nonparametric function estimation procedures can be effectively used in forecasting One important and current application is used to make forecasts of future dangerousness to inform criminal justice decision Examples include the decision to release an individual on parole determination of the parole conditions bail recommendations and sentencing Since the 1920s risk assessments of various kinds have been used in parole hearings but the current availability of large administrative data bases inexpensive computing power and developments in statistics and computer science have increased their accuracy and applicability In this book these developments are considered with particular emphasis on the statistical and computer science tools under the rubric of supervised learning that can dramatically improve these kinds of forecasts in criminal justice settings The intended audience is researchers in the social sciences and data analysts in criminal justice agencies Management of Prostate Cancer Eric A. Klein, 2004-05-07 Although much progress has been made in the four years since the first edition of Management of Prostate Cancer prostate cancer remains a significant biological medical and personal challenge for millions of men In this interval some important trends and observations have emerged that represent real progress in the field and which will shape the direction of clinical practice and research in the next 5 10 years These observations include 1 a decline in prostate related cancer mortality in the United States likely owing to a combination of factors including screening more aggressive and earlier therapy and improvements in specific therapies 2 a significant downward pathological stage migration so that an individual's chance of cure for a given stage grade and PSA is better now than it was early in the PSA era even without associated improvements in individual therapies 3 the recognition of new PSA isoforms that may refine screening strategies 4 several randomized phase III clinical trials demonstrating survival advantages of one form of therapy over another in selected populations external beam radiation therapy with adjuvant hormones vs radiotherapy alone radical prostatectomy vs observation 5 a focus on the biology of bone and bone metastasis and new agents that reduce skeletal related events and which may inhibit the growth of new metastases 6 second generation anti PSMA antibodies with improved potential for imaging and therapy 7 the development and widespread adoption of nomograms that assist in clinical decision making for individual patients 8 the identification of new genes that

Queen Mothers Rhonda Jeffries, 2019-08-01 Black women's experiences functioning as mothers teachers and leaders are confounding and complex Queen Mothers from Ghanaian tradition are revered as the leaders of their matrilineal families and the teachers of the high chiefs Miller 2013 Stoeltje 1997 Conversely the influence of the British Queen Mother on Black women in the Americas translates as a powerless title of discourtesy Characterized as a deviant figure by colonialists the Black Queen Mother's role as disruptive agent was created by White domination of Black life Masenya 2014 and this branding persists among contemporary perceptions of Black women who function as the mother teacher or leader figure in various spaces Nevertheless Black women as cultural anomalies were suitable to mother others for centuries in their roles as chattel and domestic servants in the United States Dill 2014 Lawson 2000 Lewis 1977 and Rodriguez 2016 provide explorations of the devaluation of Black women in roles of power with these effects wide ranging from economic and family security professional and business development healthcare maintenance political representation spiritual enlightenment and educational achievement This text interrogates contexts where Black women function as Queen Mothers and contests the trivialization of their manifold contributions The contributed chapters explore The myriad experiences of Black women mothering teaching and leading their children families and communities how spirituality has influenced the leadership styles of Black women as mothers and teachers and how Black women are uniquely positioned to mother teach and lead in personal and professional spaces
