Millner Kahr, 2018-02-23 This new edition of an established survey of the Golden Age of Dutch painting has been revised corrected and updated in the text notes and bibliography as a result of new scholarship The author has written a new preface to this edition Rembrandt Vermeer Hals Ruisdael Cuyp de Witte van Goyen van de Velde Hobbema Fabritius de Hooch and Saenrendam are some of the painters included and discussed The Visible and the Invisible Daniela

Hammer-Tugendhat, 2015-03-10 The book addresses the scientific debates on Rembrandt Metsu Vermeer and Hoogstraten that are currently taking place in art history and cultural studies These focus mainly on the representation of gender difference the relationship between text and image and the emotional discourse They are also an appeal for art history as a form of cultural studies that analyses the semantic potential of art within discursive and social contemporary practices Dutch painting of the seventeenth century reflects its relationship to visible reality It deals with ambiguities and contradictions As an avant garde artistic media it also contributes to the emergence of a subjectivity towards the modern bourgeois It discards subject matter from its traditional fixation with iconology and evokes different imaginations and semantizations aspects that have not been sufficiently taken into account in previous research The book is to be understood as an appeal for art history as a form of cultural science that analyses the semantic potential of art within discursive and social contemporary practices and at the same time demonstrates its relevance today Works by Rembrandt Metsu Vermeer Hoogstraten and others serve as exemplary case studies for addressing current debates in art history and cultural studies such as representation of gender difference relationship between text and image and emotional discourse Vermeer John Malcolm Nash, 1991 The intelligent and accessible text and the reproductions of all Vermeer's surviving paintings in color make this the ideal introduction to Vermeer's work Johannes Vermeer is one of the most subtle artists who ever lived and yet his pictures have achieved the recognition they deserve only in the 20th century Second only to Rembrandt among 17th century Dutch painters he enjoyed nothing like the same fame in his own lifetime The rediscovery of Vermeer is a story in itself which John Nash unravels in a critical journey showing how by dint of comparisons cross references and intelligent guesswork Vermeer's paintings can be made to yield some of their secrets Eminently readable with all Vermeer's surviving paintings reproduced in full color this is an accessible and intelligent account of this important and popular artist Time and Transformation in

Seventeenth-century Dutch Art Susan Donahue Kuretsky, Walter S. Gibson, John and Mable Ringling Museum of Art, J.B. Speed Art Museum, 2005 Time and Transformation brings together a variety of seventeenth century Dutch paintings and works on paper in a major examination of themes dealing with the transformative effects of time and circumstance The Dutch were fascinated with this idea and the variety of motifs used to convey it Included are images of local landscapes with medieval structures left in ruins in the wake of the Spanish wars depictions of rustic cottages and farmhouses Dutch Italianate landscapes with Roman ruins and representations of accidental ruins caused by flood or fire Non architectural imagery such as vanitas still lifes and depictions of ruined trees encourage broader thinking on the meanings and

Painting and Publishing as Cultural Industries Claartje Rasterhoff, 2025-10-01 The Dutch Republic was a cultural powerhouse in the modern era producing lasting masterpieces in painting and publishing and in the process transforming those fields from modest trades to booming industries This book asks the question of how such a small nation could become such a major player in those fields Claartje Rasterhoff shows how industrial organisations played a role in shaping patterns of growth and innovations As early modern Dutch cultural industries were concentrated geographically highly networked and institutionally embedded they were able to reduce uncertainty in the marketplace and stimulate the commercial and creative potential of painters and publishers though those successes eventually came up against the limits of a saturated domestic market and an aversion to risk on the part of producers that ultimately brought an end to the boom
