From the Terrace John O'Hara, 1958 Chronicles the events of Alfred Eaton's life against his successful career in MacHardie and Company and the Department of the Navy Novelist Cerro Danush Ronald K. Faulseit, 2013-01-01 Monte Albán was the capital of the Valley of Oaxaca Mexico ca 500 BC AD 600 but once its control began to wane other sites filled the political vacuum Archaeologists have long awaited a meticulous excavation of one of these sites one that would help us better understand the process that transformed second tier sites into a series of polities or se or os that competed with each other for centuries This book reports in detail on Ronald Faulseit's excavations at the site of Dainz Macuilxchitl in the Valley of Oaxaca His 2007 2010 mapping and excavation seasons focused on the Late Classic AD 600 900 and Early Postclassic AD 900 1300 The spatial distributions of surface artifacts collected during the intensive mapping and systematic surface collecting on residential terraces at Cerro Danush are analyzed to evaluate evidence for craft production ritual and abandonment at the community level This community analysis is complemented by data from the comprehensive excavation of a residential terrace which documents diachronic patterns of behavior at the household level The results from Faulseit's survey and excavations are evaluated within the theoretical frameworks of political cycling and resilience theory Faulseit concludes that resilient social structures may have helped orchestrate reorganization in the dynamic political landscape of Oaxaca after the political collapse of Monte Albán Geological Survey Professional Paper, 1962 U.S. Geological Survey Professional Paper, 1957 Accuracy of Evapotranspiration Rates Determined by the Water-budget Method, Gila River Flood Plain, Southeastern Arizona Ronald Lee Hanson, David R. severe punishment his liver devoured by an eagle It was known under multiple names most commonly the Caspian or Alan Gates Featuring in the works of literary giants no other mountain pass in the ancient and medieval world matches Dariali s fame Yet little was known about the materiality of this mythical place A team of archaeologists has now shed much new light on the major gorge blocking fort and a barrier wall on a steep rocky ridge further north The walls still standing today were built around the time of the first major Hunnic invasion in the late fourth century when the Caucasus defences feature increasingly prominently in negotiations between the Great Powers of Persia and Rome In its endeavour to strongly fortify the strategic mountain pass through the Central Caucasus the workforce erased most traces of earlier occupation The Persian built bastion saw heavy occupation for 600 years Its multi faith medieval garrison controlled Trans Caucasian traffic Everyday objects and human remains reveal harsh living conditions and close connections to the Muslim South as well as the steppe world of the north The Caspian Gates explains how a highly strategic rock has played a pivotal role in world history from Classical Antiquity into the twentieth century
