From The Warring Factions:

From the Warring Factions Ammiel Alcalay, 2002 Civilians and Warfare in World History Nicola Foote, Nadya Williams, 2017-08-23 This book explores the role played by civilians in shaping the outcomes of military combat across time and place This volume explores the contributions civilians have made to warfare in case studies that range from ancient Europe to contemporary Africa and Latin America Building on philosophical and legal scholarship it explores the blurred boundary between combatant and civilian in different historical contexts and examines how the absence of clear demarcations shapes civilian strategic positioning and impacts civilian vulnerability to military targeting and massacre The book argues that engagement with the blurred boundaries between combatant and non combatant both advance the key analytical questions that underpin the historical literature on civilians and underline the centrality of civilians to a full understanding of warfare The volume provides new insight into why civilian death and suffering has been so common despite widespread beliefs embedded in legal and military codes across time and place that killing civilians is wrong Ultimately the case studies in the book show that civilians while always victims of war were nevertheless often able to become empowered agents in defending their own lives and impacting the outcomes of wars By highlighting civilian military agency and broadening the sense of which actors affect strategic outcomes the book also contributes to a richer understanding of war itself This book will be of much interest to students of military studies international history international relations and war and conflict studies A Concise History of Afghanistan in 25 Volumes Hamid Wahed Alikuzai, 2013-10 For 35 000 years ancient Afghanistan was called Aryana the Light of God has existed Then in 747 AD what is today called Afghanistan became Khorasan which means Sunrise in Dari which was a much larger geographical area In the middle of the nineteenth century the name Afghanistan which means home of the united tribes was applied originally by the Saxons present day British and the Russians During the Great Games in the middle of nineteenth century the Durand Line was created in 1893 and was in place until 1993 Saxons created the state of Afghanistan out of a geographical area roughly the size of Texas in 1893 before which there were 10 million square kilometers larger than the size of Canada as means to act as a buffer zone between the Saxon India Tsarist Russia and the Chinese Conflict Resolution: Peace Implementation in New Wars Melanie Flowers, 2010-05-26 Mel Flowers Conflict Resolution Peace Implementation in New Wars offers an assessment of the phase immediately following the signing of a peace agreement It contributes knowledge to the understanding of the challenges to peace processes during peace implementation and identifies factors that are decisive or necessary for a successful peace implementation in the context of a new war The author argues that a high quality of the peace agreement and high international interest and commitment are critical for implementing a peace accord in a difficult conflict environment The dynamics of the Liberian civil wars 1989 1996 and 1999 2003 illustrate the subject matter Routledge Handbook of Conflict Response and Leadership in Africa Alpaslan Özerdem, Sinem Akgül-Açıkmeşe, Ian Liebenberg, 2021-09-14 This

Zones of Conflict in Africa George Klay Kieh Jr.,Ida Rousseau Mukenge,2002-03-30 Torn by ongoing civil and military violence Africa presents a challenge to scholars interested in the root causes of conflict Each conflict is unique but overall they exhibit common patterns The contributors of this book employ an eclectic array of current explanations of civil strife and how to resolve it The first half of the book provides the relevant theoretical background Theories of conflict and conflict resolution the larger context of African strife in Africa and patterns and trends of conflict are discussed Shifting from the general to the particular the remaining chapters of this volume gauge the accuracy and usefulness of the current thinking on conflicts by grounding it in case studies drawn from the Great Lakes Region Liberia Nigeria and Zambia

The Burden of Collective Goodwill Abiodun Alao,2017-07-05 The book is the first to discuss in detail the extensive external involvement in the Liberian civil war a war that claimed up to 200 000 lives created a massive refugee crisis and brought West Africa to the tribunal of international attention The book is conceived against the background that the international response to the conflict has features that are unprecedented in the management of civil conflicts in the post cold war era For example the regional peacekeeping mission was the first after the end of the cold war while the dispatch of UN Observer mission was the first ever joint peacekeeping mission between the UN and a regional organisation The extensive involvement of international organisations in the conflict has not been witnessed in the region since the Biafran war of 1967 1970

Islam and Bosnia Maya Shatzmiller,2002-05-15 Islam and Bosnia re examines the conflict of the 1990s from the perspectives of international relations conflict resolution and history as well as psychology anthropology and cultural studies Rejecting the primordialist or ancient hatreds interpretation as the root of the conflict the authors detail how a complex cultural transformation led to the erosion of what had been the common inclusionist base of a multi ethnic state and brought about a new exclusionist nationalism By pulling together the individual elements of culture society and foreign policy and analysing their interaction Islam and Bosnia demonstrates how the secular romantic nationalism of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries centred on history language and landscape was overthrown in favour of one that highlighted religion race and territory Islam and Bosnia shows how the Bosnian conflict bears on the wider contexts of cultural paradigms deadly conflicts and the formulation of foreign policy It argues for a new perspective in foreign policy making one that would embrace and incorporate better and deeper knowledge and understanding of culture history and ideology Contributors include Tone Bringa University of Bergen Amila Buturovic York University John V A Fine University of Michigan Peter W Galbraith former U S ambassador to Croatia Graham N Green former Canadian ambassador to Croatia Nader Hashemi Ph D candidate University of Toronto John M Reid information commissioner for Canada Andr s Riedlmayer Harvard University Michael A Sells Haverford College Donald W Smith former Canadian ambassador to Croatia and Vamik D Volkan University of Virginia Canada Fire George A.
