Higher schools and universities in France. Higher schools and universities in German Matthew Arnold,1904 Alfred Loisy and the Making of History of Religions

Annelies Lannoy,2020-08-10 This monograph studies the professionalization of History of religions as an academic discipline in late 19th and early 20th century France and Europe Its common thread is the work of the French Modernist priest and later Professor of History of religions at the Collège de France Alfred Loisy 1857 1940 who participated in many of the most topical debates among French and international historians of religions Unlike his well studied Modernist theology Loisy's writings on comparative religion and his rich interactions with famous scholars like F Cumont M Mauss or J G Frazer remain largely unknown This monograph is the first to paint a comprehensive picture of his career as a historian of religions before and after his excommunication in 1908 Through a contextual analysis of publications by Loisy and contemporaries and a large corpus of private correspondence it illuminates the scientification of the discipline between 1890 1920 and its deep entanglement with religion politics and society Particular attention is also given to the role of national and transnational scholarly networks and the way they controlled the theoretical and institutional frameworks for studying the history of religions

The Oxford Handbook of Religion and Education Liam Francis Gearon,Arniika Kuusisto,2025-04-29 The Oxford Handbook of Religion and Education offers a multi disciplinary work of scholarship and research highlighting the global significance of a critical interface of cultural and social political and theological importance Drawing on historical perspective and contemporary reflection the collection provides a uniquely transformative analysis of why the interface of religion and education is of such critical significance With contributions from some of the leading thinkers in the field this Handbook presents a cumulatively powerful argument to reassess the complexities of the intersection of religion and education With ambitious and yet accessible intellectual engagements the Handbook here furthers a central thesis that the interface of religion and education is not merely a matter of arcane disputation about a domain of ancient origin or a rudimentary matter of formal educational process but a vibrant domain of critical contestation fundamental to knowing understanding and living in the modern world History and Polemics in the French Reformation Barbara Sher Tinsley,1992 Raemond's significance in European historiography a study that is attracting renewed attention among scholars is explored by comparing his views with those of other historians and public figures of his century both Protestant and Catholic The first three chapters deal with Raemond's life and literary associations the fourth with his exposé of Pope Joan Next follows a consideration of his book on the Antichrist which together with the chapter on Joan offers a survey of many centuries of information and misinformation concerning church history especially the nature of papal primacy apostolic purity and the apocalyptic fears of a variety of writers and theologians These included Luther Calvin Melanchthon and John Bale who thought that the pope or the Turk was the Beast of the Book of Daniel
