Dead Center Georgia Jones Sorenson, James Macgregor Burns, 1999-11-26 The urgent question of our time is whether we can make change our friend and not our enemy To renew America we must be bold must revitalize our democracy Together with our friends and allies we will work to shape change lest it engulf us With those inaugural words William Jefferson Clinton began his first term as President of the United States Now a Pulitzer Prize winning historian and a former White House aide provide the first penetrating thoughtful evaluation of President Clinton's leadership Before he was voted into office Bill Clinton told the authors in an interview that he wanted to be a transforming leader a president who would fashion real and lasting change in peoples lives in the tradition of Franklin Delano Roosevelt But how has this president who has sought to lead from the center with his vice president Al Gore and the First Lady Hillary Rodham Clinton measured up against his own stated goals and the aspirations and performances of other presidents since World War II From the health care debacle and the 1994 midterm elections that swept the Republicans to a majority in both houses of Congress to the effect of scandal and impeachment on his ability to govern Dead Center examines the leadership style of Bill Clinton and offers a forceful challenge to the strategy of centrism There is no more respected presidential historian than James MacGregor Burns author of several acclaimed books on leadership and the Pulitzer Prize winning study of Franklin D Roosevelt Georgia J Sorenson adds her own insights as a political scientist and presidential scholar Their combined efforts have resulted in an incisive informative authoritative work and an absorbing read

A Time of Paradox Glen Jeansonne, David Luhrssen, 2006-03-02 In this lively and provocative synthesis historian Glen Jeansonne explores the people events that shaped America in the 20th century Comprehensive in scope A Time of Paradox analyzes the political diplomatic social and cultural developments of the last century while focusing on the diverse and sometimes contradictory human experiences that characterized this dynamic period in American history

Feminist Social Work Theory and Practice Lena Dominelli, 2017-03-14 Feminist theories of social work have been criticised in recent years for treating women as a uniform category and displaying insufficient sensitivity to the complex ways in which other social divisions those of race age disability etc impact on gender relations This major text by a leading writer in the field seeks to develop a new framework for feminist social work that takes on board postmodernist arguments to do with difference and power yet retains a commitment to collective solidarity and social change As such it will be essential reading for students educators and practitioners alike in social work

Inclusion and Exclusion in the Liberal Competition State Richard Münch, 2012-07-26 This book examines the increasingly international division of labour which promotes transnational integration It analyses the change in worker solidarity as it moves from collective national welfare to a transnational inclusion of workers from various links in the production chain Examining three types of welfare regimes within the USA Germany Denmark and Sweden the author addresses how and why globalization is furthering the change from the welfare state to the competition state The book considers in particular the change to solidarity taking place because of the internationalization of labour division a change away from the segmented and differentiated system of nation states with strong internal national solidarity to broader more inclusive and cross border labour identity and inclusion Analysing the deeper moral consequences of a globalised labour society such as the paradigms of inclusion and justice this book considers the implications of transnational labour on national welfare politics and looks at the increasing significance of the transnational and national politics of inclusion in social policy education minority rights immigration and gender equality
