Mystical Places and Marvelous Meals Sara Nieves-Grafals, Al Getz, 2005-12 Travel adventures and tasty food go hand in hand. Mystical Places and Marvelous Meals: A Travel Cookbook explores ancient settlements, searches for legendary beasts, and dispels travel myths while sampling local delicacies. Visit little-known funerary structures 1,900 years older than the Egyptian pyramids. Enter a chapel lined with the bones of 5,000 monks. Find out whether sex and death are mutually exclusive. Do bullfights mean blood and gore? Does roadside food have to taste like plastic? Authors Sara Nieves-Grafals and Al Getz, a husband and wife team of mental health professionals turned travel cookbook writers, take us on over twenty years of journeys peppered with history, geography, folklore, cross-cultural psychology, foreign languages, architecture, mythology, archaeology, and gastronomy. Seventy-five recipes from their Washington, D.C. home kitchen transport us to different destinations. Sara Nieves-Grafals, a polyglot clinical psychologist from Puerto Rico, dances flamenco in her spare time. She lectures about mental health issues and has a psychotherapy practice. Al Getz, originally from New Jersey, retired as a public health analyst. He has edited scientific publications, built cabinets, designed kitchens, and dabbles in photography, classical music, and painting. Together, they journey through life, traveling, learning, and cooking. Recommended for people who travel with a map in one hand and a knife and fork in the other to cool locations where their whimsy takes them. Washington Post 2/5/06

Turning the Tune Adam R. Kaul,2009 The last century has seen radical social changes in Ireland which have impacted all aspects of local life but none more so than traditional Irish music an increasingly important identity marker both in Ireland and abroad The author focuses on a small village in County Clare which became a kind of pilgrimage site for those interested in experiencing traditional music He begins by tracing its historical development from the days prior to the influx of visitors through a period called the Revival in which traditional Irish music was revitalized and transformed to the modern period which is dominated by tourism A large number of incomers locally known as blow ins have moved to the area and the traditional Irish music is now largely performed and passed on by them This fine grained ethnographic study explores the commercialization of music and culture the touristic consolidation and consumption of place and offers a critique of the trope of authenticity all in a setting of dramatic social change in which the movement of people is constant
