A Surgeon in the Army of the Potomac Francis M. Wafer,2008

Lured across the border by promises of opportunity and adventure Francis M Wafer a young student from Queen s Medical College in Kingston joined the Union s army of the Potomac as an assistant surgeon From the battle of the Wilderness to the closing campaigns Wafer was both participant and chronicler of the American Civil War Cheryl Wells provides an edited and fully annotated collection of Wafer s diary entries during the war his letters home and the memoirs he wrote after returning to Canada Wafer s writings are a fascinating and deeply personal account of the actions duties feelings and perceptions of a noncombatant who experienced the thick of battle and its grave consequences The only substantial account by a Canadian Civil War soldier who returned to Canada A Surgeon in the Army of the Potomac fills a critical gap in American Civil War historiography and will have broad appeal among scholars and enthusiasts The Military Surgeon ,1920 A Surgeon with Custer at the Little Big Horn James Madison DeWolf,2017-05-25 In spring 1876 a physician named James Madison DeWolf accepted the assignment of contract surgeon for the Seventh Cavalry becoming one of three surgeons who accompanied Custer s battalion at the Battle of the Little Big Horn Killed in the early stages of the battle he might easily have become a mere footnote in the many chronicles of this epic campaign but he left behind an eyewitness account in his diary and correspondence A Surgeon with Custer at the Little Big Horn is the first annotated edition of these rare accounts since 1958 and the most complete treatment to date While researchers have known of DeWolf s diary for many years few details have surfaced about the man himself In A Surgeon with Custer at the Little Big Horn Todd E Harburn bridges this gap providing a detailed biography of DeWolf as well as extensive editorial insight into his writings As one of the most highly educated men who traveled with Custer the surgeon was well equipped to compose articulate descriptions of the 1876 campaign against the Indians a fateful journey that began for him at Fort Lincoln Dakota Territory and ended on the battlefield in eastern Montana Territory In letters to his beloved wife Fannie and in diary entries reproduced in this volume exactly as he wrote them DeWolf describes the terrain weather conditions and medical needs that he and his companions encountered along the way After DeWolf s death his colleague Dr Henry Porter who survived the conflict retrieved his diary and sent it to DeWolf s widow Later the DeWolf family donated it to the Little Bighorn Battlefield National Monument Now available in this accessible and fully annotated format the diary along with the DeWolf s personal correspondence serves as a unique primary resource for information about the Little Big Horn campaign and medical practices on the western frontier
