Men in the Age of Sail Graeme J. Milne, 2024-06-15 Myths and stereotypes surrounding seafarers in the Age of Sail persist to this day Sailors were celebrated for their courage strength and skill yet condemned for militancy vice and fecklessness As sail gave way to steam sailing ship mariners became nostalgic symbols of maritime prowess and heritage representing a timeless heroic masculinity in an era when the modernizing industrial world was challenging assumptions about gender class work and society Drawing on British seafaring memoirs from the late nineteenth century Making Men in the Age of Sail argues that maritime writing moulded the reading public's image of the merchant seaman Authors chronicled their lives as they grew from boy sailors to trained seafarers telling colourful tales of the men they worked with most never doubted that the sailing ship had made them better men Their testimony reinforced and preserved conservative perspectives on seafaring manhood as Britain's economic and technological priorities continued to evolve in the new steamship age Offering a gender analysis of the image of the seafarer Making Men in the Age of Sail brings the history of British sailors into wider debates about modernity and masculinity National Library of Medicine Audiovisuals Catalog National Library of Medicine

(U.S.), 1977 Priesthood and Temple in John's Apocalypse Timothy B. Tse, 2024-12-12 Timothy B Tse argues that while

John uses language drawn from the Hebrew Bible's descriptions of YHWH's dwelling place scholarship has overlooked the importance of his spatial transformation of that language Tse thus uses theories relating to Relevance Resistance Theory Critical Space Theory and Conceptual Metaphor to demonstrate that a significant part of John's apocalyptic strategy of resistance is to re-present his vision to his audience spatially so that they can experience a divinely ordained alternative to the world in which they live Tse first demonstrates John's attempts to relegate his audience's experience of space to his own revelation John's description of the visionary world creates the metaphors the earth is a Sanctuary and the Saints are its priests Tse argues that under this view life on earth must be evaluated according to the concerns of the Sanctuary which by definition requires the removal of everything impure and the Saints namely all Christians in both the historic and visionary worlds must take priestly responsibility for the earth John therefore portrays the Saints joining in the removal of all impurity upon the earth by fighting as priests in God and the Lamb's war against Satan Babylon and all her impurities Tse concludes that overall John means to realign the church's experience of space so that they understand themselves as priests of the Sanctuary and live according to that reality
