Cast a Dark Shadow S.C. Rackes, 2013-09-26 Do you realize how long it's been Dallas spoke trying to keep her voice as unemotional as possible Bart hated scenes Dallas knew she should back off drop the subject and leave Bart alone It was the only safe way to deal with him lately Tonight was a final desperate effort on her part It was their wedding anniversary If anything was left between them she should be able to reach it on what was supposed to be a day of celebration Early returns weren't promising Let's face it Dallas thought Your carefully constructed web of pretense is fraying and fraying fast with a whole lot of help from your husband Why can't you admit it's over and just take your losses and get out Because I hate to give up and throw twenty years down the rabbit hole At least without giving it one last shot Bart didn't answer Dallas didn't even acknowledge the question He was staring past her at a spot somewhere over and slightly to the right of her head His moods had gotten increasingly dark and difficult lately his patience with her nonexistent As Dallas watched him lift the glass he held and drain its contents she thought He's drinking way too much Dallas looked away feeling totally defeated As she did she heard Bart rattle the ice cubes in his glass That was her cue to get him a refill Let him get his own damned refill she decided with a rare burst of irritation and rebellion He has feet Tonight as soon as she'd given him his anniversary gift she knew she'd made a mistake His face closed up his jaw tensed and he acted like she'd handed him a bomb he expected would go off at any minute The gift still sat unopened on the table At first Dallas hoped it was because he forgot about the anniversary and didn't have anything for her But it was more than that There was something different about Bart tonight something Dallas couldn't identify something that intensified the uneasy feelings she'd had for the last six months More and more she felt like she was living with a stranger Doesn't twenty years of marriage mean a thing to you Bart Dallas asked At last Bart decided to acknowledge her presence He let his gaze drop to her slender ankles and work its way up to her face His hazel eyes were cold and his mouth was set in a thin line I fail to see twenty years of marriage as an excuse for you to run around dressed like a cheap tramp Dallas he said I'm not dressed like a tramp Dallas wore a white lace teddy she bought especially for the occasion It was about as successful as the fancy dinner she cooked and Bart barely touched Another mistake obviously she decided My whole life seems to be a mistake lately She sighed I wanted you to make love to me That's all Nothing else works I thought this was worth a try Bart's silence and the unyielding intensity of his gaze made Dallas look away again She stared past him out the sliding glass patio doors where a crescent moon floated on the horizon It washed the night with pale light and made it look as cold and empty as Dallas felt I will make love to you when I want to Bart finally said Do you understand And if I never want to again that part of your life will be over Whether you like it or not Dallas swallowed hard bit her lip and fought back the tears of resignation and defeat that gathered on her lower lids If there was anything her husband hated worse than emotional scenes it was tears You are no different from any other tramp in the world are you Dallas Always willing to get some poor slob to do what you want him to do Then when he does you turn on him You all turn on him Bart's words and the vehemence behind them dried Dallas's tears up before they had a chance to spill over What in God's name is he talking about now Dallas wondered Not for the first time in her dealings with Bart lately had she tried to label uneasiness that crossed the line and became something else

Prince of the Dark Shadows Jinn Yah El, 2018-01-13 This book examines the life and experience of a young man who during the grueling frontier campaign of embattled youth challenged the status quo and dogmatic reality that would set the stage for war to regain his freedom The idea for this book came from a question about who we are where we come from and what has happened to us This unlike many others is not just a tale of triumph or the overcoming of obstacles and setbacks It is not just one man's throw of conspicuous bravery in the face of adversity No This book is about transcendence and enlightenment You will read about youthful exploits that pursued pain hurt and anger the chase for intangible sough in objectiveness and a journey that harnessed the inescapable will of bias judgment and indifference This book details not only the life of such a young man and his struggle to endure abandonment loss and his fight for identity More so this book is about how that struggle equals strength and how consciousness is the result of losing oneself It is about how the history that we all
