From Parry to Britten Lewis Foreman, 1987 A chronological anthology including correspondence by Bantock Britten Delius Elgar Balfour Gardiner Heseltine Moeran Parry Stanford and Vaughan Williams With an appendix identifying families and copyright owners of British composers of the period An Imperishable Heritage: British Choral Music from Parry to Dyson Stephen Town, 2016-04-15 The rehabilitation of British music began with Hubert Parry and Charles Villiers Stanford Ralph Vaughan Williams assisted in its emancipation from continental models while Gerald Finzi Edmund Rubbra and George Dyson flourished in its independence Stephen Town's survey of Choral Music of the English Musical Renaissance is rooted in close examination of selected works from these composers Town collates the substantial secondary literature on these composers and brings to bear his own study of the autograph manuscripts The latter form an unparalleled record of compositional process and shed new light on the compositions as they have come down to us in their published and recorded form This close study of the sources allows Town to identify for the first time instances of similarity and imitation continuities and connections between the works Parry to Finzi Trevor Hold, 2005 Each chapter begins with a discussion of its composer's song output and of the poets and poetry he sets and goes on to give an account of the influences on him and the hallmarks of his style the songs are then discussed in detail focusing on the major works The text is illustrated with musical examples and there is a comprehensive bibliography and index Jacket August Jaeger: Portrait of Nimrod Kevin Allen, 2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2000 August Jaeger was one of Elgar's most devoted supporters and was the subject of one of Elgar's most inspired movements the Nimrod variation This study explores the correspondence between Jaeger and the famous English composer Comrade Heart Andy Croft, 2003-11-08 This is the extraordinary story of the English poet Randall Swingler godson of the Archbishop of Canterbury communist librettist publisher propagandist poet and war hero It is a book about the Second World War and the story of the African and Italian campaigns recorded uniquely through the eyes of the ordinary soldier It is a case study of the intellectual consequences of the Cold War in Britain McCarthyism and Zhdanovism Croft's retelling of Randall Swingler's life from comfortable childhood and public school through to crushing penury will appeal to cultural political and literary historians The BBC and Ultra-Modern Music, 1922-1936 Jennifer Ruth Doctor, 1999 This book first published in 2000 examines the BBC's campaign to raise cultural awareness of British mass audiences in the early days of radio As a specific case it focuses on policies and plans behind transmissions of music by composers associated with Arnold Schoenberg's circle between 1922 when the BBC was founded and spring 1936 when Edward Clark a former Schoenberg pupil and central figure in BBC music resigned from the Corporation This study traces and analyses the BBC's attempts to manipulate critical and public responses to this repertory The book investigates three interrelated aspects of early BBC history Policy decisions relating to contemporary music transmissions are examined to determine why precious broadcast time was devoted to this repertory Early personnel structures are reconstructed to investigate the responsibilities attitudes and interests of those who influenced music broadcasting Finally broadcasts of Second Viennese School works are examined in detail

Figures of Modernity Rūta Stanevičiūtė, 2024-11-11 The subject of this book is the activity of the Lithuanian Section of the International Society for Contemporary Music its pre history 1936 1939 and post war reception as well as the history of the Vilnius Chapter of the ISCM Polish Section which is seen as integral part of the modernisation of Lithuanian and international musical culture With the aim of including the modern music movements in Kaunas and Vilnius in the international context the book presents a critical review of ISCM strategies and a history of festivals in the interwar and early Cold War periods In the said context not only the artistic but also the political contexts of the Society's activities are important The Lithuanian Section of the ISCM is attributed to typical organisations of small countries stimulated by an international movement of modern music However in an environment of cultural transfer not only the migration of ideas from the centre to the periphery is important but also the response from the periphery to the centre The author addresses the issues which are only marginally represented in many histories of the 20th century musical modernisation
