

Peacekeeping vs. Peacemaking

- Peacemaking usually involves UN troops directly in armed combat
- It is designed to bring peace to the affected area by pushing the conflicting parties to the negotiating table
- The UN played peacemaking roles in Korea (1950-53) and the Persian Gulf (1991)

From Peacekeeping To Peacemaking:

From Peacekeeping to Peacemaking Nicholas Gammer, Teleglobe Raoul-Dandurand Chair of Strategic and Diplomatic Studies, Université du Québec à Montréal. Centre d'études des politiques étrangères et de sécurité, 2001 This examination of Canada's response to the disintegration of the Federal State of Yugoslavia considers how Canadian foreign policy was formed and the role of the prime minister in this decision making Gammer political science Okanagan University College argues that Mulroney used his office to redefine international standards on humanitarian intervention Gammer also outlines the risks in doing this and considers the impact of Mulroney's stance on the behavior of Canadian troops He considers the role of political leadership in foreign affairs and its relationship to legitimacy c Book News Inc Peacemaking and Peacekeeping for the New Century Michael W. Doyle, Olara A. Otunnu, Nelson Mandela, 2000-01-01 The UN's record in peace operations is long various distinguished by both accomplishments and failures and most importantly innovative Unfulfilled expectations and escalating violence in Somalia Rwanda and Bosnia forced retrenchment upon UN peace operations _but at the same time a new opportunity to enhance capacities review strategies redefine roles and reaffirm responsibilities has opened up Here a dynamic group of leading diplomats academics and journalists combines forces with UN policymakers and leaders including current Secretary General Kofi Annan and former Secretary General Boutros Boutros Ghali to explore how the international community can improve its practice in negotiating and implementing peace They look at what works and what doesn't in UN peacemaking and peacekeeping and then map out alternative futures for UN action in the 21st century Peacekeeping and Peacemaking Tom Woodhouse, Robert Bruce, Malcolm Dando, 2016-07-27 The fiftieth anniversary of the foundation of the United Nations was commemorated in 1995 with a number of conferences and publications which assessed the history and contemporary role of this paramount international organisation This book is the result of a meeting of scholars and specialists who wished to further understanding of the challenges faced by the United Nations in its efforts to intervene in post cold war conflict In particular the experiences in Bosnia Somalia and in Rwanda where UN peacekeepers seemed powerless to act in the face of acts of genocide gross violations of human rights and the widespread suffering caused by war makes such an analysis timely and important Peacekeeping and Peacemaking After the Cold War Lynn Etheridge Davis, 1993 This report addresses the challenges of peacekeeping and peacemaking after the Cold War looking first at recent efforts to keep the peace and then suggesting a multifaceted approach for the future It looks at operations in which the international community successfully cooperated such as in Iraq and less successfully so such as in Cambodia and the western Sahara It points out that bringing peace to post Cold War conflicts will require the international community to take a role in helping build nations and in the process carry out such additional activities as monitoring human rights demobilizing armies providing administrative services and setting up democratic institutions Elements of Peacemaking Revolutions Sapir Handelman, 2021-09-24 Intractable conflict is a protracted violent and long time struggle wherein generation after generation is socially conditioned to continue fighting To break the chain of destruction a revolutionary peacemaking process is required This book serves as an introduction to the study of peacemaking revolutions which are necessary to build a peaceful and well functioning society in desperate intractable conflict situations The challenge of peacemaking revolution is to turn opposing parties into a peacemaking community A peacemaking community offers political platforms to involve the different societal elements of the opposing parties in the struggle for change It offers a consensus building process that approaches the conflict from different sides dimensions and directions This book provides a fresh perspective to the study of destructive social conflicts their transformation and resolution It will serve to provoke a critical discussion among those who are interested in the new emerging study of peacemaking revolutions From Peacekeeping to Peacemaking Nicholas Gammer, Teleglobe Raoul-Dandurand Chair of Strategic and Diplomatic Studies, Université du Québec à Montréal. mandates and UN peacekeeping is in danger of losing the distinct character that won it the 1988 Nobel Peace Prize this important book argues for a clear theoretical redefinition within a conflict resolution framework and examines the practical implications for training This is a valuable and original contribution to the peacekeeping literature Dr Oliver Ramsbotham Department of Peace Studies University of Bradford Both for the blue helmets on the ground and for the diplomats at UN headquarters conflict resolution skills are essential for conducting peacekeeping operations Betts Fetherstone s excellent study points the way forward to a synthesis between conflict management and peacekeeping Hugh Miall Research Fellow European Programme Royal Institute of International Affairs The prevailing over taxed ad hoc system of peacekeeping does not meet the growing demands posed by the post Cold War world This volume argues that peacekeeping needs to be placed on firm conceptual footing directly congruent with its peaceful third party role The implications of this conceptualisation of peacekeeping for practice are then discussed Training is cited as a key means of translating conceptual understanding into practice Without this foundation work UN has little chance of changing its existing and largely ineffective system of conflict management At a time when peacekeepers are struggling to fulfil increasingly demanding mandates and UN peacekeeping is in danger of losing the distinct character that won it the 1988 Nobel Peace Prize this important book argues for a clear theoretical redefinition within a conflict resolution framework and examines the practical implications for training This is a valuable and original contribution to the peacekeeping literature Peacemaking ,2021-10-25 Peacemaking includes a large array of activities from local to global attempts to attain peace It includes consideration of international interstate and intertribal conflict resolution communal personal and interpersonal social justice deterrence of the use of nuclear weapons design of international treaties that prevent war or other forms of international conflict disarmament international organizations that secure the order among nations and even from some points of view war As the 20th century drew to a close we have witnessed peacemakers trying to end ethnic cleansing reinstate justly elected political leaders and reach compromises in the ideological differences that perpetuate age old conflicts We also see peacemaking in our schools homes and workplaces Philosophers have long been interested in peacemaking in one form or another and philosophical accounts of peacemaking reflect the variety of perspectives methods and activities developed in pursuing peacemaking In some instances philosophers expand upon the situations activities and methods of the peacemaker in the field The essays in this volume propose some theoretical arguments for various aspects of peacemaking offer nonmilitary alternatives to war and discuss practical examples of peacemaking in daily life The contributors analyze power relations language social groupings and distribution of resources At times they draw insight from social and historical models of conflict and conflict resolution This collection of essays on peacemaking aims to enlighten contemporary social and political discussions and contribute to achieving the ever challenging goal of peace Approaches to Peacebuilding H. Jeong,2002-08-11 Ho Won Jeong and a cast of experts explore the ways in which the dynamics of post conflict situations can be transformed to sustainable peace

Contributors focus on designs and models of peacebuilding functions of peacekeeping capacity building through negotiations reconciliation the role of gender in social reconstruction and policy coordination among different components of peacebuilding The analysis illustrates past and current experiences of peacebuilding and suggests conceptual and policy approaches that can overcome the weaknesses of existing strategies Making War and Building Peace Michael W.

Doyle, Nicholas Sambanis, 2011-04-22 Making War and Building Peace examines how well United Nations peacekeeping missions work after civil war Statistically analyzing all civil wars since 1945 the book compares peace processes that had UN involvement to those that didn't Michael Doyle and Nicholas Sambanis argue that each mission must be designed to fit the conflict with the right authority and adequate resources UN missions can be effective by supporting new actors committed to the peace building governing institutions and monitoring and policing implementation of peace settlements But the UN is not good at intervening in ongoing wars If the conflict is controlled by spoilers or if the parties are not ready to make peace the UN cannot play an effective enforcement role It can however offer its technical expertise in multidimensional peacekeeping operations that follow enforcement missions undertaken by states or regional organizations such as NATO Finding that UN missions are most effective in the first few years after the end of war and that economic development is the best way to decrease the risk of new fighting in the long run the authors also argue that the UN's role in launching development projects after civil war should be expanded Peacebuilding, Conflict and Community Development John Eversley, Sinéad

Gormally, Avila Kilmurray, 2022-11-28 How do local communities effectively build peace and reconciliation before during and after open violence This trailblazing book gives practical examples from the Global North the former Soviet bloc and Global South on communities addressing conflict in divided and contested societies The book draws on a range of critical perspectives and practitioner analyses The diverse case studies demonstrate the considerable knowledge skills commitment courage and relationships within local communities that a critical community development approach can support and encourage Concluding with activists perspectives on working with the challenges of violence the book offers insights for both an understanding of the root causes of conflict and for bottom up peacebuilding Re-envisioning Peacekeeping

Prevention and Peace-building in Post-War Societies T. David Mason, James D. Meernik, 2006-05-02 This volume provides an overview of the costs benefits consequences and prospects for rebuilding nations emerging from violent conflict The rationale for this comes from the growing realization that in the post Cold War era and in the aftermath of 9/11 our understanding of conflict and conflict resolution has to include consideration of the conditions conducive to sustaining the peace in nations torn by civil war or interstate conflict The chapters analyze the prospects for building a sustainable peace from a number of different perspectives examining the role of economic development democratization respect for human rights the potential for renewal of conflict the United Nations and other critical topics In an age when nation building is once again on the international agenda and scholars as well as policy makers realize both the tremendous costs and benefits in fostering developed democratic peaceful and secure nations the time has truly come for a book that integrates all the facets of this important subject Conflict Prevention and Peace building in Post War Societies will appeal to students and scholars of peace studies international relations security studies and conflict resolution as well as policy makers and analysts

Transitional Justice in Peacebuilding Djeyhoun Ostowar, 2020-11-22 This book explores the role of actors in determining transitional justice in peacebuilding contexts In recent decades transitional justice mechanisms and processes have been introduced to a variety of settings becoming widely regarded as essential elements in the peacebuilding toolbox While it has increasingly been suggested that transitional justice is imposed by neo imperial actors with little regard for the needs and cultures of local populations evidence suggests that dismissing these policies as neo imperial or neo liberal impositions would result in grossly overlooking their dynamics which involve a whole range of relevant actors operating at multiple levels This book interrogates this theme through empirical analysis of three sites of peacebuilding that have seen extensive international involvement Kosovo East Timor and Afghanistan It proposes a novel framework for analysing and approaching transitional justice in peacebuilding that disaggregates three broad sets of actors operating at different levels in relevant processes external actors international and regional levels transitional justice promoters local national international and transnational levels and transitional regimes national and local levels The book argues that transitional justice in peacebuilding must be conceived of as actor contingent and malleable due to the significance of agency and inter actions of key categories of actors throughout peacebuilding transition This book will be of interest to students and practitioners of transitional justice peacebuilding law and International Relations Routledge Handbook of African Peacebuilding Bruno Charbonneau, Maxime Ricard, 2022-05-30 Africa lies at the centre of the international community s peacebuilding interventions and the continent s rich multitude of actors ideas relationships practices experiences locations and contexts in turn shapes the possibilities and practices of contemporary peacebuilding This timely new handbook surveys and analyses peacebuilding as it operates in this specifically African context The book begins by outlining the evolution and the various ideologies conceptualizations institutions and practices of African peacebuilding It identifies critical differences in how African peacebuilders have conceptualized and operationalized peacebuilding The book then considers how different actors sustain construct and use African infrastructure to identify and analyse converging differing or competing mandates approaches and interests Finally it analyses specific thematic issues such as gender justice development democracy and the politics of knowledge before ending with in depth analyses of case studies drawn from across the continent Bringing together an international line up of expert contributors this book will be an essential read for students and scholars of African politics post conflict reconstruction security and peace and conflict studies Curriculum Studies in Canada Anne M.

Phelan, William F. Pinar, 2024-06-03 The largest specialization in faculties of education in Canada is curriculum studies Curriculum Studies in Canada represents the present preoccupations of curriculum scholars in Canada Set against the backdrop of the COVID 19 pandemic contributors engage with significant themes among them ongoing efforts at justice for Indigenous Peoples the continuing arrival of immigrants and refugees Canada's complex relationship to the United States and issues related to the climate crisis Addressing such realities through the field of curriculum studies and the school curriculum is critical at this historical conjuncture given the complex and shifting intersections of local and global dynamics restricting education To this end contributing scholars serve as intellectual activists to address the critical need for understanding curriculum responsive to the vexed relations among schools nation building social reconstruction and identity development Their activism yields more sophisticated understandings of what it means to be educated in Canada Contributors trace the legacy of their work and reflect on their present scholarly preoccupations in light of their past endeavours In doing so Curriculum Studies in Canada offers an invitation to readers to study remember dialogue and navigate an uncertain world with them The United Nations and Peacekeeping Indarjit Rikhye, Kjell

Skjelsbaek, 2016-07-27 The 1988 Nobel Peace Prize has thrown into sharp relief the significant role United Nations peacekeepers have played on the international stage since the first operation 40 years ago This volume takes stock of our peacekeeping past and present and considers its future It gives an insider's look at management and financing issues the views of troop contributing countries and the effect of operations on peacekeepers and local populations This volume strengthens the case for peacekeeping in a viable system for international peace and security Global Leadership

Initiatives for Conflict Resolution and Peacebuilding Campbell, Andrew H., 2018-03-23 One global leadership challenge is managing the complexity of the political and economic climate of a society As the global environment changes it is essential for global leaders to adapt and develop flexible strategies for resolving conflicts and achieving peace Global Leadership Initiatives for Conflict Resolution and Peacebuilding provides emerging research on a leader's role in the international national and nongovernmental organization within post conflict resolution and peaceful leadership While highlighting topics such as civil society organizations leadership education and social reconstruction this book explores leadership theories and practice models to conceptualize the intersection of leadership within conflict management and resolution This book is an important resource for leaders scholar practitioners educators and researchers seeking current research on the strategic and diplomatic methods of a peaceful global organization Crisis Management Beyond the Humanitarian-Development Nexus Atsushi Hanatani, Oscar A. Gómez, Chigumi Kawaguchi, 2018-09-27 In addressing humanitarian crises the international community has long understood the need to extend beyond providing immediate relief and to engage with long term recovery activities and the prevention of similar crises in the future However this continuum from short term relief to rehabilitation and development has often proved difficult to achieve This book aims to shed light on the continuum of humanitarian crisis management particularly from the viewpoint of major bilateral donors and agencies Focusing on cases of armed conflicts and disasters the authors describe the evolution of approaches and lessons learnt in practice when moving from emergency relief to recovery and prevention of future crises Drawing on an extensive research project conducted by the Japan International Cooperation Agency Research Institute this book compares how a range of international organizations bilateral cooperation agencies NGOs and research institutes have approached the continuum in international humanitarian crisis management The book draws on six humanitarian crises case studies each resulting from armed conflict or natural disasters Timor Leste South Sudan the Syrian crisis Hurricane Mitch in Honduras the Indian Ocean earthquake and tsunami in Indonesia and Typhoon Yolanda The book concludes by proposing a common conceptual framework designed to appeal to different stakeholders involved in crisis management Following on from the World Humanitarian Summit where a new way of working on the humanitarian development nexus was highlighted as one of five major priority trends this book is a timely contribution to the debate which should interest researchers of humanitarian studies conflict and peace studies and disaster risk management
