From Poverty To Famine In Northeast Ethiopia A Rural History 1900 1935:

From Poverty to Famine in Northeast Ethiopia James McCann, 2016-11-11 In From Poverty to Famine in Northeast Ethiopia James McCann engages an interdisciplinary perspective to uncover the historical background to the persistence of famine in the northeast region of Ethiopia His study focuses on the northern Wallo region an area that was incorporated into Haile Selassie s modern state system and now one of the most devastated portions of the country The history of northern Wallo and its position within the modern Ethiopian state is presented through an examination of the circumstances in which its rural population lived farmed and adapted to a changing physical environment and political economy between 1900 and 1935 This period also coincided with the most critical years of colonial Africa s incorporation into the world economy McCann s employment of new field data calls into question previous studies of Africa which have frequently identified ecological stress and famine as simply the products of capitalist development What accounts for rural Ethiopia s vulnerability to famine when it boasts one of Africa s most efficient traditional agricultural systems To what extent have northern Ethiopian patterns of property marriage and ideology resisted or contributed to the overall impoverishment of the rural economy The answers to these questions are found in McCann s careful examination of the historical geographic ecological and demographic characteristics that have affected northern Wallo s systems of production This comprehensive description of northern Wallo s historical experience is also instructive in terms of the nature of social change and continuity and the persistence of famine throughout northern Ethiopia From Poverty to Famine in Northeastern Ethiopia Historical Dictionary of Ethiopia Thomas P. Ofcansky, David H. Shinn, 2004-03-29 An easily accessible reference guide for Ethiopian historical events important persons geographical locations ethnic groups key issues and common ephemera containing numerous cross references for related items and those known by more than one name Historical Dictionary of Ethiopia David H. Shinn, Thomas P. Ofcansky, 2013-04-11 Ethiopia is clearly one of the most important countries in Africa First of all with about 75 million people it is the third most populous country in Africa Second it is very strategically located in the Horn of Africa and bordering Eritrea Sudan Kenya and Somalia with some of whom it has touchy and sometimes worse relations Yet its capital Addis Ababa is the headquarters of the African Union the prime meeting place for Africa s leaders So if things went poorly in Ethiopia this would not be good for Africa and for a long time this was the case with internal disruption rife until it was literally suppressed under the strong rule of the recently deceased Meles Zenawi The Historical Dictionary of Ethiopia Second Edition covers the history of Ethiopia through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has several hundred cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Ethiopia Problems of Communism , 1990 Autonomy and Power Maria L. Lagos, 2016-11-11 Maria L Lagos supplies a fine grained ethnographic and historical analysis of the intersecting dynamics of class and culture in Tiraque a province in the highlands of Cochabamba Bolivia Haile Selassie, Western Education, and Political Revolution in Ethiopia Paulos Milkias, 2006 The Quest for Democracy, Self-Determination, and Just Peace in Oromia and Ethiopia Asafa Jalata, 2025-06-18 This book demonstrates that the Oromo national struggle for egalitarian democracy self determination and just peace is complex mysterious and dangerous By employing a social constructionist theory of making societies and critical comparative political economic historical sociological and sociocultural approaches it impresses the importance of exposing the deficiencies of dominant social theories and systems of knowledge production and asserts that until the intellectuals of the colonized communities develop critical knowledge for human liberation by decolonizing the minds of the oppressed and the modern sciences which help perpetuate ignorance domination and exploitation there cannot be true human liberation and egalitarian democracy The Rising Tide of Cultural Pluralism Crawford Young, 1993 Two decades after the publication of his prize winning book The Politics of Cultural Pluralism Crawford Young and a distinguished panel of contributors assess the changing impact of cultural pluralism on political processes around the world specifically in the former Soviet Union China United States India Ethiopia and Guatemala The result is an arresting look at the dissolution of the nation state system as we have known it Crawford Young opens with an overview of the dramatic rise in the political significance of cultural pluralism and of scholars changing understanding of what drives and shapes ethnic identification Mark Beissinger brilliantly explains the demise of the last great empire state the USSR while Edward Friedman notes growing challenges to the apparent cultural homogeneity of China Nader Entessar suggests intriguing contrasts in Azeri identity politics in Iran and the ex USSR Ronald Schmidt and Noel Kent explore the language and racial dimensions of the rising multicultural currents in the United States Douglas Spitz shows the extent of the decline of the old secular vision of India of the independence generation Alan LeBaron traces the recent emergence of an assertive Mayan identity among a submerged populace in Guatemala long thought to be destined for Ladinoization A case study of the diversity and uncertain future of Ethiopia dramatically emerges from four contrasting contributions Tekle Woldemikael looks at the potential cultural tensions in Eritrea Solomon Gashaw offers a central Ethiopian nationalist perspective Herbert Lewis reflects the perspectives of a restless and disaffected periphery and James Quirin provides an arresting explanation of the construction of identity amongst the Beta Israel Ethiopian Jews Virginia Sapiro steps back from specific regions offering an original analysis of the interaction between cultural pluralism and gender The Life and Times of Lij Iyasu of Ethiopia Éloi Ficquet, Wolbert G. C. Smidt, 2014 One hundred years ago from 1910 to 1916 the young prince Lij Iyasu 1897 1936 assumed power as the uncrowned emperor of Ethiopia However he was overthrown by an alliance of oligarchs led by the future emperor Haile Sillase The short reign of Iyasu disrupted by fierce inner competitions in the international context of World War I has remained obscure even to specialized researchers Yet over the past two decades new sources have been uncovered allowing for new questions and searching for new answers This book assembles diverse perspectives on Lij Iyasu s politics and life his pluralistic and controversial religious inclinations and his international relations Series Northeast African History Orality and Heritage Vol 3 The Eritrean Struggle for Independence Ruth Iyob,1995 This book is a comprehensive analysis of the country s political history over the past three decades Food Security, Safety Nets and Social Protection in Ethiopia Dessalegn Rahmato,Alula Pankhurst,Jan-Gerrit van Uffelen,2013 This book which examines Ethiopia s food security strategy and the safety net program from different approaches and perspectives in the context of the development of a social protection policy is a continuation of that tradition Ethiopia s safety net program is one of the largest and most influential social protection schemes in Africa and as noted by several authors in this volume provides important lessons beyond the Ethiopian context Back cover Africa Air University (U.S.). Library,1988 Eritrea Roy Pateman,1998 This work traces the Eritrean response to Ethiopian occupation of their land and the origins of the war The book provides a survey of Eritrean history with a special inside look at the military and other developments in the last two decades Completely updated and revised to provide readers with an insight into developments in the last five years Death Without Weeping Nancy Scheper-Hughes,2023-11-15 When lives are dominated by hunger what becomes of love When assaulted by daily acts of violence and untimely death what happens to trust Set in the lands of Northeast Brazil this is an account of the everyday experience of scarcity sickness and death that centres on the lives of the women and children of a hillside favela Bringing her readers to the impoverished slopes above the modern plantation town of Bom Jesus de Mata where she has worked on and off for 25 years Nancy Scheper Hughes follows three generations of shantytown women as they struggle to survive through hard work cunning and triage It is a story of class relations told at the most basic level of bodies emotions desires and needs Most disturbing and controversial is her finding that mother love as conventionally understood is something of a bourgeois myth a luxury for those who can reasonably expect as these women cannot that their infants will live When lives are dominated by hunger what becomes of love When assaulted by daily acts of violence and untimely death what happens to trust Set in the lands of Northeast Brazil this is an account of the everyday experience of scarcity sickness and dea The Power of Continuity Eva Poluha,2004 In this gracefully written book Dr Eva Poluha wrestles with important issues of Ethiopian political culture and cultural continuity and transmission in general Drawing upon her years of experience in the country as well as the data from this school ethnography she has produced a stimulating and thought provoking work for those interested in problems of cross cultural education as well as in Ethiopia Herbert S Lewis Professor Emeritus Department of Anthropology University of Wisconsin Madison Children play a vital role as a source of information on politics but have been neglected as political actors in research contexts In this study children are used as a window to an Ethiopian society where hierarchical relations persist despite the numerous political and administrative transformations of the past century With data gathered through participant observation the book examines how young Addis Abeba school children learn to adapt to and reproduce relations of superordination or subordination based on gender age strength and social position The children s experiences are viewed in the historical context of state citizen relations where hierarchy and obsession with control have been and continue to be dominant The discussion focuses on the power of continuity in the reproduction of cultural patterns and political behaviour and on how change towards more egalitarian relations could come about Tradition and Transformation Abebe Kifleyesus,2006 The Argobba are an ethnic and religious minority in southeastern Wallo and northeastern Sawa Despite living in harsh environments and menace from more dominant ethnic groups they have for centuries maintained their agricultural activity trader and weaver identity and religious unity At present they are undergoing rapid cultural change and are caught up in a tension between encapsulation and the struggle for the survival of Argobba cultural tradition and political position in what once was a strategic location This book presents a perceptive historical and cultural analysis of change and continuity looks at how the Argobba define and redefine their agricultural and commercial ways of living as a response to threats from Oromo migration Amhara settler penetration and Adal aggression and examines the past and present condition of Argobba social and economic transformation in north central Ethiopia Being Lakota Larissa Petrillo,Melda Trejo,Lupe Trejo,2007-12-01 In Libreville the capital of the African nation of Gabon the colonial past has evolved into a present indelibly marked by colonial rule and ongoing French influence This is especially evident in areas as essential to life as food In this complex hybrid culinary culture of Libreville croissants are as readily available as plantains Yet this same culinary diversity is accompanied by high prices and a scarcity of locally made food that is bewildering to residents and visitors alike A staggering two thirds of the country s food is imported from outside Gabon making Libreville s cost of living comparable to that of Tokyo and Paris In this compelling study of food culture and colonialism Jeremy Rich explores how colonial rule intimately shaped African life and how African townspeople developed creative ways of coping with colonialism as European expansion threatened African self sufficiency From colonization in the 1840s through independence Libreville struggled with problems of food scarcity resulting from the legacy of Atlantic slavery the violence of colonial conquest and the rise of the timber export industry Marriage disputes racial tensions and worker unrest often centered on food and townspeople employed varied tactics to combat its scarcity Ultimately imports emerged as the solution and have had a lasting impact on Gabon s culinary culture and economy Fascinating and informative A Workman Is Worthy of His Meat engages a new avenue of historical inquiry in examining the culture of food as part of the colonial experience and resonates with the questions of globalization dominating culinary economics today Pre-Colonial Africa in Colonial African Narratives Donald R. Wehrs,2016-04-08 In his study of the origins of political reflection in twentieth century African fiction Donald Wehrs examines a neglected but important body of African texts written in colonial English and French and indigenous Hausa and Yoruba languages He explores pioneering narrative representations of pre colonial African history and society in seven texts Casely Hayford s Ethiopia Unbound 1911 Alhaji Sir Abubaker Tafawa Balewa s Shaihu Umar 1934 Paul Hazoum s Doguicimi 1938 D O Fagunwa s Forest of a Thousand Daemons 1938 Amos Tutuola s The Palm Wine Drinkard

1952 and My Life in the Bush of Ghosts 1954 and Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart 1958 Wehrs highlights the role of pre colonial political economies and articulations of state power on colonial era considerations of ethical and political issues and is attentive to the gendered implications of texts and authorial choices By positioning Things Fall Apart as the culmination of a tradition rather than as its inaugural work he also reconfigures how we think of African fiction His book supplements recent work on the importance of indigenous contexts and discourses in situating colonial era narratives and will inspire fresh methodological strategies for studying the continent from a multiplicity of perspectives

Disaster and Development in the Horn of Africa John Sorenson, 2016-07-27 The Horn of Africa has suffered repeated disasters wars drought famine mass refugee movements and environmental decline This book explains the historical and political background to these crises and outlines the prospects for development in the region Experts on the Horn cover a broad range of topics including ethnic conflict gender and refugees food security the survival of pastoralism the future of independent Eritrea operations of intelligence agencies and the possibilities for regional cooperation

Making Citizens in Africa Lahra Smith, 2013-05-20 This book provides a study of contemporary politics in Ethiopia through an empirical focus on language policy citizenship ethnic identity and gender It is unique in its focus not only on the political institutions of Ethiopia and the history of the country but in that it studies these subjects at the intersection of both modern and historical time periods In particular it argues that meaningful citizenship which is much more than the legal state of being a citizen is a process of citizens and the state negotiating the practice of citizenship Therefore it puts the citizen back at the forefront of the process of expanding citizenship suggesting the ways that citizens support resist and affect state policy on political rights
