Neoclassicism refers to the revival of classical art and architecture beginning in Europe in the 1750s until around 1830 with late neoclassicism lingering through the 1870s It is a highly complex movement that brought together seemingly disparate issues into a new and culturally rich era one that was unified under a broad interest in classical antiquity The movement was born in Italy and France and spread across Europe to Russia and the United States It was motivated by a desire to use ideas from antiquity to help address modern social economic and political issues in Europe and neoclassicism came to be viewed as a style and philosophy that offered a sense of purpose and dignity to art following the new enlightened thinking This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Neoclassical Art and Architecture contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 300 cross referenced entries cover late Baroque and Rococo tendencies found in the early 18th century and span the century to include artists who moved from neoclassicism to early romanticism This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about neoclassical art and architecture

Documentary History of Art ,1957 A Documentary History of Art Elizabeth Basye Gilmore Holt,1966 Building American Public Health R. Lopez,2012-05-04 This historical study looks at how reformers have used urban planning and architecture to improve the health of urban residents of the United States It begins in the nineteenth century when problems in rapidly urbanizing cities threatened to overwhelm cities and then traces the development and impact of reform movements up through the First World War including discussions of model tenements the city beautiful movement tenement laws and zoning and building codes Midcentury design movements such as new efforts to plan suburbs and Modernism along with outlines of the impacts of public housing highway building and urban renewal are the focus of the middle chapters of the book The final third examines the revival of cities and the reconnection of public health with urban planning that occurred as the twentieth century ended How Art is Made Debra N Mancoff,2023-11-23 How Art Is Made looks at renowned works of art from across the centuries and around the globe and asks the intriguingly simple question how were these works actually made Divided into two sections materials and methods each chapter showcases a single work of art which demonstrates the mastery and innovative use of a single material or method from oil paint pastel and pencil to woodcut litho and impasto Each work is presented as the centerpiece of a capsule history while comparative works are also included to help amplify our understanding. How for example did Michelangelo paint the Sistine Chapel fresco or Turner become such a master of watercolor? How did Warhol turn so effectively to screen printing and how does Yayoi Kusama create such beguiling infinity rooms? The book enhances the experience of looking at great works of art and guides us to a deeper understanding of how they were created and why we regard them as so important.

Deeper than Reason Jenefer Robinson, 2005-04-07 Deeper than Reason takes the insights of modern psychological and neuroscientific research on the emotions and brings them to bear on questions about our emotional involvement with the arts. Robinson begins by laying out a theory of emotion one that is supported by the best evidence from current empirical work on emotions and then in the light of this theory examines some of the ways in which the emotions function in the arts. Written in a clear and engaging style her book will make fascinating reading for anyone who is interested in the emotions and how they work as well as anyone engaged with the arts and aesthetics especially with questions about emotional expression in the arts emotional experience of art forms and more generally artistic interpretation. Part One develops a theory of emotions as processes having at their core non cognitive instinctive appraisals deeper than reason which automatically induce physiological changes and action tendencies and which then give way to cognitive monitoring of the situation. Part Two examines the role of the emotions in understanding literature especially the great realistic novels of the nineteenth century. Robinson argues that such works need to be experienced emotionally if they are to be properly understood. A detailed reading of Edith Wharton's novel The Reef demonstrates how a great novel can educate us emotionally by first evoking instinctive emotional responses and then getting us to cognitively monitor and reflect upon them. Part Three puts forward a new Romantic theory of emotional expression in the arts. Part Four deals with music both the emotional expression of emotion in music whether vocal or instrumental and the arousal of emotion by music. The way music arouses emotion lends indirect support to the theory of emotion outlined in Part One. While grounded in the science of emotion Deeper than Reason demonstrates the continuing importance of the arts and humanities to our lives.

Religious Aesthetics Frank Burch Brown, 1993-05-09 In this groundbreaking work Brown shows how aesthetics no less than ethics can play a central role in the study of religion and in the practice of theology.
