From The Devotions Poems:

From the Devotions Carl Phillips, 1997-12-31 With From the Devotions Carl Phillips takes us even further into that dangerous space he has already made his own where body and soul ever restless come explosively together Speaking to a balance between decorum and pain he offers here a devotional poetry that argues for faith even without the comforting gods or the organized structures of revealed truth Neither sage nor saint nor prophet the poet is the listener the mourner the one who has some access to the maddening quarters of human consciousness the wry Sibyl From the Devotions is deeply felt highly intelligent and unsentimental and cements Phillips's reputation as a poet of enormous talent and depth In his extraordinary new book of poems From the Devotions by far his best Carl Phillips has done what few of his contemporaries have dared or managed with as much elegant authority He has plotted here the romantic landscape of desire Myths are unsheathed and glisten History is held and pondered Violence shimmers desires are silhouetted against the light of love and death His tone is at once erotic and mystical hushed and compelling This book is a blessing a ravishing a haunting I urge you to read it to succumb to it J D McClatchy Carl Phillips is the author of In the Blood which won the Morse Poetry Prize and Cort George a Finalist for both the National Book Critics Circle Award and a Lambda Literary Award The recipient of fellowships and prizes from the Guggenheim Foundation the Massachusetts Artists Foundation and the Academy of American Poets Phillips is associate professor of English and of African and Afro American Studies at Washington University St Louis where he also directs the creative writing program
