Rethinking China's Rise Jilin Xu, 2018-07-05 China s rise to power is the signal event of the twenty first century and this volume offers a contemporary view of this nation in ascendancy from the inside Eight recent essays by Xu Jilin a popular historian and one of China's most prominent public intellectuals critique China's rejection of universal values and the nation's embrace of Chinese particularism the rise of the cult of the state and the acceptance of the historicist ideas of Carl Schmitt and Leo Strauss Xu's work is distinct both from better known voices of dissent and also from the New Left perspectives offering instead a liberal reaction to the complexity of China's rise Yet this work is not a shrill denunciation of Xu's intellectual enemies but rather a subtle and heartfelt call for China to accept its status as a great power and join the world as a force for good

The Great Dragon Fantasy Guanjun Wu, 2014 China has undergone a unique path of development in the post Maoist era Especially the last decade witnessed China's rapid rise to economic wealth and superpower status vis a vis the severe developmental predicaments of the West financial crises socio political turbulences etc This book analyzes how the leading Chinese thinkers understand China's prosperity and rapid development today and whether there is any hidden mechanism that has been playing a crucial role of forming contemporary Chinese thinkers shared passionate endeavor of resuscitating classical Chinese ideas and thus shows how the fervor for discovering OC essential characteristicsOCO of Chinese thought reveals a hidden psychological mechanism Contents The Fantasmatic Narrative of Contemporary Chinese Thought OC Descendants of a Blurry Eyed DragonOCO New Enlightenment as Modernization OC TraumaticOCO Encounters with Postmodernism Liberals and New Leftists as OC Discursive EnemiesOCO China's New Nationalism and Its Obscene Core Traversing the Fantasmatic Past and Future Readership Academics professionals Sinologists advanced undergraduate and graduate students interested in China studies

The Self as Enterprise Peter Kelly, 2016-03-03 Twenty first century flexible capitalism creates new demands for those who work to acknowledge that all aspects of their lives have come to be seen as performance related and consequently of interest to those who employ them or fire them At the start of the 21st century we can identify borrowing from Max Weber new work ethics that provide novel ethically slanted maxims for the conduct of a life and which suggest that the cultivation of the self as an enterprise is the life long activity that should give meaning purpose and direction to a life The book provides an innovative theoretical and methodological approach that draws on the problematising critique of Michel Foucault the sociological imagination of Zygmunt Bauman and the work influenced by these authors in social theory and social research in the last three decades The author takes seriously the ambivalence and irony that marks many people's experience of their working lives and the demands of work at the start of the 21st century The book makes an important contribution to the continuing debate about the nature of work related identities and the consequences of the intensification of the work regimes in which these identities are performed and regulated In a post global financial crisis GFC world of sovereign debt austerity and recession the author's analysis focuses academic and professional interest on neo liberal injunctions to imagine ourselves as an enterprise and to reap the rewards and carry the costs of the conduct of this enterprise

Great Dragon Fantasy, The: A Lacanian Analysis Of Contemporary Chinese Thought Guanjun Wu, 2014-05-21 China has undergone a unique path of development in the post Maoist era Especially the last decade witnessed China's rapid rise to economic wealth and superpower status vis vis the severe developmental predicaments of the West financial crises socio political turbulences etc This book analyzes how the leading Chinese thinkers understand China's prosperity and rapid development today and whether there is any hidden mechanism that has been playing a crucial role of forming contemporary Chinese thinkers shared passionate endeavor of resuscitating classical Chinese ideas and thus shows how the fervor for discovering essential characteristics of Chinese thought reveals a hidden psychological mechanism

The Subject in Crisis in Contemporary Chinese Literature Rong Cai, 2004-05-31 Post Mao China produced two parallel discourses on the human subject in the New Era 1976-1989 One was an autonomous Enlightenment humanist self aimed at replacing the revolutionary paragon that had dominated under Mao The other was a more problematic subject suffering from either a symbolic physical deformity or some kind of spiritual paralysis that undermines its apparent normalcy How do we explain the stubborn presence in the literature of the 1980s and 1990s of this crippled agent who fails to realize the humanist autonomy envisioned by post Mao theorists What are the anxieties and tensions embedded in this incongruity and what do they reveal This illuminating and original critical study of the crippled subject in post Mao literature offers a detailed textual analysis of the work of five well known contemporary writers Han Shaogong Can Xue Yu Hua Mo Yan and Jia Pingwa The author investigates not only the literary characters within the texts but also their creators real subjects in history Chinese writers whose own agency was being tested and established in the search for a new subjectivity She argues that reenacting the Maoist legacy the literary search failed to provide a viable model for a postrevolutionary China In addition the deficiency and inadequacy of the subject cannot always be contained in the Communist past a history to be transcended in the design of modernity after Mao The representation of the problematic subject thus punctured post Mao optimism and foreshadowed the eventual abandonment of the move to rethink subjectivity in the 1990s By diving beneath the euphoria of the 1980s and the confusion and frustration of the 1990s these critical readings offer a unique perspective with which to gauge the complexity of China's quest for modernity and a fuller understanding of the self's multifaceted experience in the post Mao era

Contemporary China Review [2024 Spring/Summer Issue] Journal Editors, 2024-07-25 As the Year 2024 has already passed half I sincerely hope and pray for world peace and for people to live and work in peace But looking ahead I believe the future will still not be peaceful The Russian Ukrainian war is still raging and the people are suffering The Israeli Hamas conflict seems to have no signs of stopping and the US election is surging As I said before the three major divisions facing the world are presented at the same time this year the Russian Ukrainian war is a major division between the democratic and dictatorial camps the US election is a major left right division and the Israeli Hamas conflict has surpassed the left right division and the democracy dictatorship division Is the world heading for doomsday We wait and see

China since Tiananmen Joseph Fewsmith, 2008-07-03 In this edition of his path breaking analysis of political and social change in China since the crackdown in Tiananmen Square in 1989 Joseph Fewsmith traces developments since 2001 These include the continuing reforms during the final years of Jiang Zemin s premiership and Hu Jintao s succession in 2002 Here the author also considers social trends and how Chinese citizens are starting to have a significant influence on government policies As Fewsmith a highly regarded political scientist and a seasoned China watcher observes China is a very different place since Tiananmen Square In the interim it has emerged from isolation to become one of the most significant players on the world stage This book explains the forces that have shaped China since Tiananmen

The "Historicization" of Contemporary Literature Cheng Guangwei,2024-09-03 This book provides a concise introduction to the intellectual trends in contemporary Chinese literature from the 1950s to the 1990s and the influence of overseas Sinology The turbulent period of the second half of the 20th century in China witnessed a significant societal shift from a revolutionary to an economic focus This transformation introduced and stimulated various ideas reshaping public thought and reconstructing the historical landscape of contemporary Chinese literature This book explores the response and self exploration of domestic literary studies of the period which were heavily influenced by the Western academic tradition and overseas Sinology studies It examines critical phenomena figures and events in this context The author s narrative vividly illustrates the interplay and dialogue of factors such as revolution reform and opening up and the rise of literature in the 1980s and 1990s Combining the methodologies of literary and social history and integrating personal historical experience with rigorous academic methods this book provides a unique research framework for revisiting the cultural scene of the period The title will appeal to scholars and students of contemporary Chinese literature and history It will also attract general readers interested in Chinese culture and society in the 1980s and 1990s Routledge

International Handbook of Contemporary Social and Political Theory Gerard Delanty,Stephen P. Turner,2011-03-23 The Handbook will address a range of issues that have emerged out of recent social and political theory It will focus on key themes as opposed to schools of thought or major theorists Each chapter is an emerging cutting edge topic that is of interest both to social theory and to political theory Most topics will have a clear and substantive focus on social or political problems

□□□□□□. Juchang Performance in Contemporary Chinese Society (1980-2020) Yinan Li,2021-03-01 1980 The term juchang is introduced contextualized and defined by leading professor of theatre in China Li Yinan and forms a unique and individual selection of interviews with nine juchang theatre makers from different periods after 1980 who have contributed to different and interesting developments All have different backgrounds ages and perspectives on theatre that reflect the open and inclusive nature of the concept of juchang The interviewees were all active in Chinese theatre when a different creative spirit reigned and yet they seem to have had extensive cohesion between and influence on each other A ground breaking look at the changing shape of contemporary Chinese theatre from the perspectives of those who are in the process of creating it

There has been much debate in recent times between the Anglo American tradition of curriculum studies and the Continental and North European tradition of didactics Didaktik As important as such debate has been this book seeks to add new voices to the debate representing ideas and traditions from a different part of the world The focus is on Chinese curriculum thinking that has passed through a number of stages and currently represents a blend of some aspects of the American tradition and Chinese cultural traditions How does Chinese thinking about curriculum teaching and learning resonate with European didactic traditions and what are the implications for theorizing an expanded field of curriculum studies This book deliberately transcends borders and cultures to explore new territory to provide a platform for open dialogue and to open up new areas of investigation Chapters include Curriculum Reform and Research in China A Social Historical Perspective What Mathematics Did Teachers Learn Comparison of the School and the Pre Service Teacher Mathematics Curricula in Germany and Taiwan Living in Parallel Worlds A Transatlantic Dialogue between General Didactics and Instructional Design Disenchantment

(□ □) Vol. I: Fracture (1980-1983) By Zhang Kangkang,2025-09-18 This is a book about memory and forgetting The 1980s grow increasingly distant occasionally returning with wind and snow but transformed to dust or drizzle or wavering suspended in the tainted air like a deathless specter That decade marking the end of our youth has the desolate beauty of an elegy ushering in our middle age it has the solemn and stirring quality of a processional Gravity has smashed the past into fragments that only words can laboriously piece together While knowing that it is merely a pointless addendum a futile reboot a belated tribute I have stubbornly attempted to look back and write this book Luo Yi once said History is essentially a court that is constantly in retrial One person s biased and narrow memories are trivial against the grand and stirring historical narrative written by the victors But I ve always forgotten what should be remembered and remembered what should be forgotten The opus magnum of a writer who has experienced the whole period of the communist regime in China Disenchantment is filled with scenes and stories oozing authenticity Michel Bonnin The author deconstructs the enchantment of ideology and reveals the brutal political violence of this period through the backgrounds and stories of her characters Su Xiaokang A stellar contribution to Chinese literature and the understanding of contemporary Chinese history Michael Duke A courageous and important work which deserves to be published in the Chinese speaking world and beyond Richard King An epic of an extraordinary age of great transformations and convulsions Bernadette Y Li A Chinese version of Doctor Zhivago David Rong Michel Foucault: A Research Companion Sverre Raffnsøe,Morten S Thaning,Marius Gudmand-Hoyer,2016-08-31 Michel Foucault continues to be hugely influential His diagnoses challenge us to rethink crucial phenomena such as madness discipline the human sciences the state neoliberalism sexuality and subject formation Based on his work in its entirety and with special emphasis on his many recently published lecture series this book provides an updated comprehensive and original account of his thought By reading Foucault as a philosopher it offers an extensive systematic assessment and discussion of his unique conception of philosophical practice and brings a unifying trajectory in his work to light

Sentimental Republic Hang Tu, 2025-02-18 How does emotion shape the landscape of public intellectual debate In Sentimental Republic Hang Tu proposes emotion as a new critical framework to approach a post Mao cultural controversy As it entered a period of market reform China did not turn away from revolutionary sentiments Rather the post Mao period experienced a surge of emotionally charged debates about red legacies ranging from the anguished denunciations of Maoist violence to the elegiac remembrances of socialist egalitarianism Sentimental Republic chronicles forty years 1978 2018 of bitter cultural wars about the Maoist past It analyzes how the four major intellectual clusters in contemporary China liberals the left cultural conservatives and nationalists debated Mao's revolutionary legacies in light of the postsocialist transition Should the Chinese condemn revolutionary violence and bid farewell to socialism Or would a return to revolution foster alternative visions of China's future path Tu probes the nexus of literature thought and memory bringing to light the dynamic moral sentiments and emotional excess at work in these post Mao ideological contentions By analyzing how rival intellectual camps stirred up melancholy guilt anger and resentment Tu argues that the polemics surrounding the country's past cannot be properly understood without reading the emotional trajectories of the post Mao intelligentsia
