From The Other Side Of The Desk Students Speak Out About Writing:

From the Other Side of the Desk Linda Miller Cleary, 1991 The author has distilled a chilling account of what went wrong in the writing lives of forty eleventh graders Everyone Can Write Peter Elbow, 2000-01-27 With Writing without Teachers OUP 1975 and Writing with Power OUP 1995 Peter Elbow revolutionized the teaching of writing His process method and its now commonplace free writing techniques liberated generations of students and teachers from the emphasis on formal principles of grammar that had dominated composition pedagogy This new collection of essays brings together the best of Elbow s writing since the publication of Embracing Contraries in 1987 The volume includes sections on voice the experience of writing teaching and evaluation Implicit throughout is Elbow s commitment to humanizing the profession and his continued emphasis on the importance of binary thinking and nonadversarial argument The result is a compendium of a master teacher s thought on the relation between good pedagogy and good writing it is sure to be of interest to all professional teachers of writing and will be a valuable book for use in composition courses at all levels Interviewing as Qualitative Research Irving Seidman, 2006 The Third Edition of this bestselling resource provides clear step by step guidance for new and experienced interviewers to help them develop shape and reflect on interviewing as a qualitative research process While proposing a phenomenological approach to in depth interviewing the author also includes principles and methods that can be adapted to a range of interviewing approaches Using concrete examples of interviewing techniques to illustrate the issues under discussion this classic text helps readers to understand the complexities of interviewing and its connections to broader issues of qualitative research Equally popular for individual and classroom use the new Third Edition of Interviewing as Qualitative Research features an introduction to the Institutional Review Board IRB process in its historical context including an expanded discussion of informed consent and its complexities a special attention to the rights of participants in interview research as those rights interact with ethical issues and updated references and suggestions for additional reading for a deeper consideration of methodological ethical and philosophical issues including relevant Internet resources Teaching/Writing in Thirdspaces Rhonda C. Grego, Nancy S. Thompson, 2008 Rhonda C Grego and Nancy S Thompson argue that because the studio is physically and institutionally outside but alongside both students other coursework and the hierarchy of the institution it represents a thirdspace a unique position in which to effect institutional change Teaching Writing in Thirdspaces provides an alternative approach to traditional basic writing courses that can be adopted in educational institutions of all types and at all levels BOOK JACKET Evaluating Children's Writing Suzanne Bratcher, Linda Ryan, 2003-09-12 Evaluating Children s Writing A Handbook of Grading Choices for Classroom Teachers Second Edition introduces and explains a wide range of specific evaluation strategies used by classroom teachers to arrive at grades and gives explicit instructions for implementing them Samples of student writing accompany the instructions to illustrate the techniques and an appendix of additional student writing is provided to allow readers to practice particular evaluation strategies More than just a catalog of grading options however this is a handbook with a point of view Its purpose is to help teachers become intentional about their grading practices Along with recipes for grading techniques it offers a philosophy of evaluating student writing that encourages teachers to put grading into a communication context and to make choices among the many options available by determining the instructional purpose of the assignment and considering the advantages and disadvantages of particular grading strategies Specific grading techniques are integrated with suggestions about the craft of evaluation guidelines for instructional objectives for student audience analysis and for teacher self analysis that help define communication contexts New in the Second Edition a new chapter on state standards and assessments a reorganization of the chapter on approaches to grading additions to the chapter on management systems additions to the chapter on teaching yourself to grade additions to the annotated bibliography and updated references throughout the text

Empowering Students Through Multilingual and Content Discourse Finley, Stacie Lynn, Correll, Pamela, Pearman, Cathy, Huffman, Stephanie, 2023-07-25 Empowering Students Through Multilingual and Content Discourse is a peer reviewed research book that challenges the traditional monolingual classroom approach where the teacher's voice dominates and only the dominant culture's language is considered the path to success The book aims to empower students by creating classroom spaces where all voices are heard valued and empowered It draws on research from scholars who study discourse and offers insights into how discourse can be used to promote language and literacy development honor all students voices and empower them This book also provides guidance on culturally and linguistically sustaining discourse practices and encourages educators to incorporate students home languages and discourse practices in classroom instruction It challenges educators to move away from centering White English and represent language more responsibly within the classroom This research is a valuable resource for academic scholars and a useful tool for teachers looking to cultivate student centered classroom practices By encouraging discourse among students educators can create a space where human life holds meaning and students feel empowered to act and use their voices Professionalization, Partnership, and Power Hugh G.

Petrie, 1995-01-01 Provides insights into and results of a wide variety of experiments with professional development schools in the field of education Cross-Cultural Research with Integrity Linda Miller Cleary, 2013-01-16 Drawing on the experience and insights of 70 researchers across 7 countries and from a diverse range of cultures regions and disciplines this book explores the issues and ethics involved in cross cultural research and how such research can be done with integrity

The Learning Society Elisabeth Dunne, 2014-05-12 This text provides perspectives in British and international interpretations of a learning society and what the roles of core skills are The book covers what should be happening in theory and what is happening in practice and develops a critical awareness of the issues Linguistics for Teachers Linda Miller Cleary, Michael D. Linn, 1993 This reader aims to give the background necessary in both the underlying research and the applications of language theory Emphasizing the connections between theory research and pedagogy the readings should reflect the diverse and multicultural nature of today's classroom. The book is designed to stand alone or to be used as a supplement to an introduction to linguistics text. The text includes chapters on dialects, teaching of grammar, syntax, and teaching English as a second language. The New Cambridge English Course 2 Teacher's Book Michael Swan, Catherine Walter, 1990-06-28. The New Cambridge English Course is a four-level course for learners of English. How English Teachers Get Taught Peter Smagorinsky, Melissa E. Whiting, 1995. This book is based on the premise that although many professional organizations and the public are concerned about how teachers are prepared for their profession, this concern is not reflected in research about teaching methods classes. By presenting findings about the educational experiences of preservice teachers, the book aims to generate initial knowledge about methods courses to provide English educators with alternatives for preparing their undergraduate secondary English methods courses and to furnish the foundation for future discussions of how the methods course can be taught. Based on deep analysis of nearly 100 syllabi, syllabi were solicited from over 300 public universities of all sizes and types; the book reports that the largest number of syllabi took a survey approach to teaching methods, covering many issues and topics in a single semester. The book discusses alternatives to the survey approach, including workshop, experience-based, theoretical, and reflective approaches. The book analyzes the strengths and weaknesses of the various approaches, activities, and assessments, and theories and issues represented in secondary English methods course syllabi. Three appendixes contain: 1. examples of five syllabi; 2. a list of colleges and universities contributing syllabi; and 3. a survey of teachers of methods courses. NKA. The British Prose Writers: Sheldon's table talk. Sir W. Blackstone's analysis of the laws of England, 1821. All the Year Round Charles Dickens, 1860. Campbell Vs. Morey James Edwin Campbell, 1884. The Other Side of Communication Jean Vautoir Paul, 2022-06-01. I, Jean Vautoir Paul, was born in Jérémie, Haiti. My mother, two sisters, and I went to Port-au-Prince, the capital of Haiti, on the invitation of our aunt Edele. She introduced us to Ms. Eleanor Louise Snare, a white American lady who adopted our orphan cousin Jean-François Snare, who really needed a mom or a dad at that time. She raised us as a big happy family. Those three women had inculcated in us the best moral principles ever. Ms. Snare couldn't afford to send us to college, so with only my high school diploma, I went to teach English. After a few years, I was blessed to run my own English school, One Way English School, in Thomassin 25. In 1999, I left for Philadelphia, and in 2014, I left for Florida and settled here since I always dreamed to make a difference in other people's lives. Therefore, on a day-by-day basis, I do my research so I can become a professional writer to bring change, hope, love, understanding, wisdom, compassion, and respect in the lives of so many who need and deserve it. Hopefully, my books do just that so I can form better people, children, societies, and families for a better world. I take pleasure in writing. It's my life. Read my books and get addicted to doing the right thing. Advertising & Selling, 1920. Writing Television Sitcoms (revised) Evan S. Smith, 2009-12-01.
