From There To Here The Immigrant Experience Literature Thought Series:

From Here to There Terry Ofner, Linda Mazunik, Rebecca Christian, 2000 Contains short stories poems biographical accounts and essays about the immigrant experience and asks are we still a melting pot Or are we a salad bowl How should we manage immigration in the future English Journal ,2002 Thinking and Learning through Children's Literature Miriam G. Martinez, Junko Yokota, Charles Temple, 2017-04-18 Much of teachers attention these days is focused on having students read closely to ferret out the author s intended meaning and the devices used to convey that meaning But we cannot forget to guide students to have moving engagements with literature because they need to make strong personal connections to books of merit if they are to become the next generation of readers literate people with awareness of and concern for the diversity of human beings around them and in different times and places Fortunately guiding both students personal engagement with literature and their close reading to appreciate the author s message and craft are not incompatible goals This book enthusiastically and intelligently addresses both imperatives first surveying what is gained when students are immersed in literature then celebrating and explicating the main features of literature students need to understand to broaden their tastes and deepen their engagement at the same time they meet external standards then presenting a host of active methods for exploring all major genres of children s books and finally presenting suggestions for interdisciplinary teaching units grounded in literature Created by noted leaders in the fields of children s literature and literacy the book is enlivened by recurring features such as suggested reading lists issues for discussion links to technology and annotations of exemplary books From There to Here Se Barrett Kendall Publishing, Limited, Perfection Learning Corporation, Perfection Learning (Firm), 2000-09-01 Teaches critical thinking and focuses on the question Should we keep America s immigration door open with selections by Emma Lazarus Charles Osgood Pat Mora Toshiko Uchida Nicholas Gage Russell Freeman and more Literature Thought Series How to Explain Immigration to Kids Trish Allison, 2023-03-11 Despite the politics of the moment it s crucial to equip children ages 6 12 with the knowledge needed to develop enduring feelings of kindness and respect toward immigrants This guidebook provides parents and caregivers with concise step by step instructions for explaining immigration in a way that is both informative and inclusive These are the steps we found to be the most effective for getting your message across 1 Discover what your child already knows about immigration 2 Define immigration basics 3 Talk about genetics and your own family heritage 4 Answer common questions from kids about immigration 5 Cultivate an immigrant friendly environment at home Please note Our guidebooks strictly adhere to American Psychological Association child development doctrines Each book includes a comprehensive reference list and in text citations reinforcing our commitment to evidence based parenting advice Equitable Literacy Instruction for Students in Poverty Doris Walker-Dalhousie, Victoria J. Risko, Differences in performance between students of poverty and more advantaged students are reflective of an opportunity gap as opposed to a gap in student ability This book argues that significant attention must be given to eliminating the barriers that produce educational inequities in student achievement Walker Dalhouse and Risko focus on disparities in literacy achievement that might be attributed to color blind practices deficit mindsets low expectations or context neutral practices Situating literacy learning within a comprehensive view of literacy development they provide a set of instructional practices that will best support students living in poverty Specifically vignettes from kindergarten through middle school classrooms are used to demonstrate practices that address critical areas of the reading process are responsive to students racial ethnic cultural gender and linguistic histories and assets attend to students strengths and needs and go beyond the impact of short term testing to support optimal and sustainable learning Educators and school leaders can use this resource to transform schools into nurturing and vibrant communities that are committed to change equity and diversity Book Features Provides recommendations and detailed guidance for enacting literacy instruction that will close opportunity gaps for students living in poverty Includes vignettes from leading literacy educators and researchers that demonstrate high quality literacy instruction implemented in K 8 classrooms Presents instruction that is responsive to differences and honors the languages literacies and cultural resources that students bring to their learning Offers specific recommendations and practices that can guide advocacy for change The authors correct the deficit misperceptions by showing how students experiencing poverty are the targets not the causes of educational disparities What a different world schools would be if we each embraced these lessons From the Afterword by Paul C Gorski founder Equity Literacy Institute

Literary Digest: a Repository of Contemporaneous Thought and Research as Presented in the Periodical Literature of the World Edward Jewitt Wheeler, Isaac Kaufman Funk, William Seaver Woods, 1905 Books, Media and the Internet Shelley S. Peterson, Carol Jupiter, 2009-10-09 As editors of Books Media and the Internet David Booth Carol Jupiter and Shelley S Peterson present the work of colleagues from the conference A Place for Children's Literature in the New Literacies Classrooms April 2008 Within these pages teachers librarians and others concerned with literacy will find inspiration and strategies for melding technology and children's literature from practitioners who have found effective ways to engage young people with text both in print and on screen The contributors to this anthology include classroom teachers librarians university educators and journalists They speak not only to the technologically capable and media savvy teachers but also to the curious who seek starting points for using new technologies alongside traditional print media in their classrooms They show how multimedia and digital technologies expand our approaches to literacy education and how to extend and enrich our use of stories whatever the media with all ages Their articles cover a vast range of subjects arranged into 5 sections This book provides current information classroom examples and anecdotes as practical tools to help teachers use digital media and print texts to extend students learning The helpful Teaching Tools section at the end of the book explains how to use a variety of digital tools in the classroom Immigration and Children's Literature Wilma Robles-Melendez, Audrey Henry, 2023-06-29 This book explores the issues faced by immigrant children through the lens of children's literature. The authors employ the UN convention of the Rights of the Child, the lens of equity and Freire's principles of critical consciousness as a framework for analysing children's literature and immigration. They focus on circumstances and experiences of immigration from the perspective of young children who are leaving their homelands and growing up as immigrants. The book focuses primarily on children from birth to 8 years old but with crossover and implications for older children. The chapters reveal the social, economic and political issues faced by child immigrants, refugees and asylum seekers throughout the global context, viewed through and alongside children's literature. The book provides suggestions for the implementation of children's literature in the curriculum and provides tools for educators and researchers working with immigrant and refugee children, showing how they can better understand their students and families. A variety of children's literature is covered, including analysis of works by Jairo Buitrago, Yanksook Choi, Sandra LeGuen, Rosemary McCartney, Bao Phi and Jeanette Winter.

Making Citizenship Work Rodolfo Rosales, 2022-08-24
Making Citizenship Work seeks to address questions of how a community reaches a place where it can actually make citizenship work. A second question addressed is: What does citizenship represent to different communities? Across thirteen chapters, a collection of experts traverse multiple disciplines in analyzing citizenship from different points of access. Each chapter revolves around the premise that empowerment of communities and individuals within the community comes in different forms and is governed by multiple needs and visions. Authors utilize case studies to demonstrate the different roles that communities from a broad sector of our society adopt to accomplish constructing democratic processes that reflect their goals, needs and cultures. Concurrently, authors address the structural obstacles to the empowerment of communities, arguing that the democratic process does not and cannot accommodate the diverse communities of society within a single universalistic model of citizenship. They conclude that fundamentally, citizenship is not simply a legal right, an obligation, a state of rights, but a practice, an action on the behalf of community. Making Citizenship Work challenges conventional thinking about politics while also encouraging readers to go beyond the box that deters us from visualizing a human society. It is an ideal book for undergraduate and graduate courses in political science, sociology, history, social work and Ethnic Studies.

The Routledge Companion to Migration Literature Gigi Adair, Rebecca Fasselt, Carly McLaughlin, 2024-07-30
The Routledge Companion to Migration Literature offers a comprehensive survey of an increasingly important field. It demonstrates the influence of the age of migration on literature and showcases the role of literature in shaping socio-political debates and creating knowledge about the migratory trajectories, lives and experiences that have shaped the post-1989 world. The contributors examine a broad range of literary texts and critical approaches that cover the spectrum between voluntary and forced migration. In doing so, they reflect the shift in recent years from the author-centric study of migrant writing to a more inclusive conception of migration literature. The book contains sections on key terms and critical approaches in the field, important genres of migration literature, a range of forms and trajectories of migration, with a particular focus on the global

South and on migration literature's relevance in social contexts outside the academy. Its range of scholarly voices on literature from different geographical contexts and in different languages is central to its call for and contribution to a pluriversal turn in literary migration studies in future scholarship. This Companion will be of particular interest to scholars working on contemporary migration literature and it also offers an introduction to new students and scholars from other fields. Chapter 15 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Proceedings of the High School Conference of ... Horace Adelbert Hollister, 1929 Language and the World: Essays in Honor of Fransoon Manjali Saitya Brata Das, 2025-07-13 This book is a comprehensive and sustained engagement with the problematic of language. It addresses some of the most urgent questions of our contemporary times such as Time and history, Violence and force, Law and justice, Ethics and politics, Metaphysics and technology, and Community and religion. It explores how language fosters the possibility of being with each other in non-totalizing ways. It presents a truly interdisciplinary approach, bringing together philosophers, social scientists, literary critics, and poets to offer fresh perspectives on the complexities of language. With contributions from scholars and thinkers worldwide, the scholarly volume is suitable for academics and researchers in the fields of linguistics, social sciences, philosophy, and contemporary culture studies.

The Settler's Plot Alex Calder, 2013-11-01 A study of the relationship between writing place and the history of the Pakeha European settlement in New Zealand, this book explores the most frequently chosen settings in classic New Zealand literature: the beach, the farm, the bush, and the suburb, and reflects on the plots and storylines that go with them. Through fascinating and unpredictable readings of some of the country's greatest works, writers such as Curnow, Frame, Mansfield, and Sargeson are viewed from new angles, while neglected masterpieces by Guthrie Smith and Maning are deemed central to New Zealand tradition. Topics include identity, cross-culturalism, the settling and unsettling of land, suburbanization, and the role of distance.

Proceedings of the High School Conference of November 1910-November 1931, 1929 Polacos in Argentina Mariusz Kalczewiak, 2019-12-03 Winner of the Latin American Jewish Studies Association Best Book Award 2020. An examination of the social and cultural repercussions of Jewish emigration from Poland to Argentina in the 1920s and 1930s. Between the 1890s and 1930s, Argentina, following the United States and Palestine, became the main destination for Eastern European Ashkenazi Jews seeking safety, civil rights, and better economic prospects. In the period between 1918 and 1939, sixty thousand Polish Jews established new homes in Argentina. They formed a strong ethnic community that quickly embraced Argentine culture while still maintaining their unique Jewish-Polish character. This mass migration caused the transformation of cultural, social, and political milieus in both Poland and Argentina, forever shaping the cultural landscape of both lands. In Polacos in Argentina: Polish Jews Interwar Migration and the Emergence of Transatlantic Jewish Culture, Mariusz Kalczewiak has constructed a multifaceted and in-depth narrative that sheds light on marginalized aspects of Jewish migration and enriches the dialogue between Latin American Jewish studies and Polish Jewish Studies Based on archival research Yiddish travelogues on Argentina and the Yiddish and Spanish language press this study recreates a mosaic of entanglements that Jewish migration wove between Poland and Argentina Most studies on mass migration fail to acknowledge the role of the country of origin but this innovative work approaches Jewish migration to Argentina as a continuous process that took place on both sides of the Atlantic Taken as a whole Polacos in Argentina enlightens the heterogeneous and complex issue of immigrant commitments belongings and expectations Jewish emigration from Poland to Argentina serves as a case study of how ethnicity evolves among migrants and their children and the dynamics that emerge between putting down roots in a new country and maintaining commitments to the country of origin

Symbolism 17: Latina/o Literature Rüdiger Ahrens, Florian Kläger, Klaus Stierstorfer, 2017-10-10 The complex nature of globalization increasingly requires a comparative approach to literature in order to understand how migration and commodity flows impact aesthetic production and expressive practices This special issue of Symbolism An International Journal of Critical Aesthetics explores the trans American dimensions of Latina o literature in a trans Atlantic context Examining the theoretical implications suggested by the comparison of the global North global South dynamics of material and aesthetic exchange this volume highlights emergent Latina o authors texts and methodologies of interest in for comparative literary studies In the essays literary scholars address questions of the transculturation translation and reception of Latina o literature in the United States and Europe In the interviews emergent Latina o authors speak to the processes of creative writing in a transnational context This volume suggests how the trans American dialogues found in contemporary Latina o literature elucidates trans Atlantic critical dialogues
