From Torture To Triumph:

From Torture to Triumph: The Lost Legend of a Man Who Opened America: Guillaume Couture Michael Fenn, 2015-07-07 Ambushed in the wilderness along with French missionaries this early pioneer in America survived torture and captivity to become an esteemed advisor to the much feared Mohawks and other Iroquois nations Guillaume Couture's remarkable life shows how fate adaptability and courage can influence the course of history His life story teaches us some very contemporary lessons about the power of faith experience and openness to other cultures From centuries old source documents Michael Fenn has pieced together the remarkable story of a young carpenter's rise from obscurity to influence in 17th America revealing the forgotten saga of an ancestor of thousands of Americans and Canadians From Torture to Triumph Richard Wurmbrand, 1991-01-01 Ritual Boundaries Joseph E. Sanzo, 2024-04-02 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press's Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more In Ritual Boundaries Joseph E Sanzo transforms our understanding of how early Christians experienced religion in lived practice through the study of magical objects such as amulets and grimoires Against the prevailing view of late antiquity as a time when only so called elites were interested in religious and ritual differentiation the evidence presented here reveals that the desire to distinguish between religious and ritual insiders and outsiders cut across diverse social strata The magical evidence also offers unique insight into early biblical reception exposing a textual world in which scriptural reading was multisensory and multitrade As they addressed sickness demonic struggle and interpersonal conflicts Mediterranean people thus acted in ways that challenge our conceptual boundaries between Christians and non Christians elites and non elites and words materials and images Sanzo helps us rethink how early Christians imagined similarity and difference among texts traditions groups and rituals as they went about their daily lives After the Nazis Michael H. Kater, 2023-01-01 A wide ranging insightful history of culture in West Germany from literature film and music to theater and the visual arts After World War II a mood of despair and impotence pervaded the arts in West Germany The culture and institutions of the Third Reich were abruptly dismissed yet there was no immediate return to the Weimar period's progressive ideals In this moment of cultural stasis how could West Germany's artists free themselves from their experiences of Nazism Moving from 1945 to reunification Michael H Kater explores West German culture as it emerged from the darkness of the Third Reich Examining periods of denial and complacency as well as attempts to reckon with the past he shows how all postwar culture was touched by the vestiges of National Socialism From the literature of G nter Grass to the happenings of Joseph Beuys and Karlheinz Stockhausen's innovations in electronic music Kater shows how it was only through the reinvigoration of the cultural scene that West Germany could contend with its past and eventually allow democracy to reemerge Run For Freedom Angela Kay Austin, 2015-09-07 The choice was to run for freedom or die never having been valued as a human as a woman The penalty was the same death Freedom and her brother Triumph would fight for their lives and the lives of the ones whom they loved no matter the cost Escaping bondage meant they must RUN Run to Moses Run to the Promised Land Watson Brown knew all too well the struggle to survive The fight to live He had been given a second chance to do what he had failed to do in life as a human What he and his father could not do before the Harpers Ferry Raid The runaway slave and her brother were a distraction He could afford no interferences with his mission He nor his family could risk exposure

Torture and the Twilight of Empire Marnia Lazreg, 2016-12-13 Torture and the Twilight of Empire looks at the intimate relationship between torture and colonial domination through a close examination of the French army's coercive tactics during the Algerian war from 1954 to 1962 By tracing the psychological cultural and political meanings of torture at the end of the French empire Marnia Lazreg also sheds new light on the United States and its recourse to torture in Iraq and Afghanistan This book is nothing less than an anatomy of torture its methods justifications functions and consequences Drawing extensively from archives confessions by former torturers interviews with former soldiers and war diaries as well as writings by Jean Paul Sartre Albert Camus and others Lazreg argues that occupying nations justify their systematic use of torture as a regrettable but necessary means of saving Western civilization from those who challenge their rule She shows how torture was central to guerre révolutionnaire a French theory of modern warfare that called for total war against the subject population and which informed a pacification strategy founded on brutal psychological techniques borrowed from totalitarian movements Lazreg seeks to understand torture's impact on the Algerian population especially women and also on the French troops who became their torturers She explores the roles Christianity and Islam played in rationalizing these acts and the ways in which torture became not only routine but even acceptable Written by a preeminent historical sociologist Torture and the Twilight of Empire holds particularly disturbing lessons for us today as we carry out the War on Terror

Tortured for Christ Richard Wurmbrand, 1993

In Triumph's Wake Julia P. Gelardi, 2025-08-22 The powerful and moving story of three royal mothers whose quest for power led to the downfall of their daughters Queen Isabella of Castile Empress Maria Theresa of Austria and Queen Victoria of England were respected and admired rulers whose legacies continue to be felt today Their daughters Catherine of Aragon Queen of England Queen Marie Antoinette of France and Vicky the Empress Frederick of Germany are equally legendary for the tragedies that befell them their roles in history surpassed by their triumphant mothers In Triumph's Wake is the first book to bring together the poignant stories of these mothers and daughters in a single narrative Isabella of Castile forged a united Spain and presided over the discovery of the New World Maria Theresa defeated her male rivals to claim the Imperial Crown and Victoria presided over the British Empire But because of their ambition and political machinations each mother pushed her daughter toward a marital alliance that resulted in disaster Catherine of Aragon was cruelly abandoned by Henry VIII who cast her aside in search of a male heir and tore England away from the Pope Marie Antoinette lost her head on the guillotine when France exploded into Revolution and the Reign of Terror Vicky died grief stricken horrified at her inability to prevent her son

Kaiser Wilhelm from setting Germany on a belligerent trajectory that eventually led to war Exhaustively researched and utterly compelling In Triumph's Wake is the story of three unusually strong women and the devastating consequences their decisions had on the lives of their equally extraordinary daughters Oeuvre Janet Kuypers, 2004 Kill Boxes: Facing the Legacy of US-Sponsored Torture, Indefinite Detention, and Drone Warfare Richard Falk, Elisabeth Weber, 2017 Kill Boxes addresses the legacy of US sponsored torture indefinite detention and drone warfare by deciphering the shocks of recognition that humanistic and artistic responses to violence bring to consciousness if readers and viewers have eyes to face them Beginning with an analysis of the ways in which the hooded man from Abu Ghraib became iconic subsequent chapters take up less culturally visible scenes of massive violations of human rights to bring us face to face with these shocks and the forms of recognition that they enable and disavow We are addressed in the photo of the hooded man all the more so as he was brutally prevented in our name from returning the camera's and thus our gaze We are addressed in the screams that turn a person tortured in our name into howling flesh We are addressed in poems written in the Guantánamo Prison camp however much American authorities try to censor them in our name We are addressed by the victims of the US drone wars however little American citizens may have heard the names of the places obliterated by the bombs for which their taxes pay And we know that we are addressed in spite of a number of strategies of brutal refusal of heeding those calls Providing intensive readings of philosophical texts by Jean Améry Jacques Derrida and Christian Thomasius with poetic texts by Franz Kafka Paul Muldoon and the poet detainees of Guantánamo Bay Prison Camp and with artistic creations by Sallah Edine Sallat the American artist collective Forkscrew and an international artist collective from Pakistan France and the US Kill Boxes demonstrates the complexity of humanistic responses to crimes committed in the name of national security The conscious or unconscious knowledge that we are addressed by the victims of these crimes is a critical factor in discussions on torture on indefinite detention without trial as practiced in Guantánamo and in debates on the strategies to circumvent the latter altogether as practiced in drone warfare and its extrajudicial assassination program The volume concludes with an Afterword by Richard Falk Torture Donatella Di Cesare, 2018-10-22 Torture is not as universally condemned as it once was From Guantánamo and Abu Ghraib prisons to the death of Giulio Regeni countless recent cases have shocked public opinion But if we want to defend the human dignity that torture violates simple indignation is not enough In this important book Donatella Di Cesare provides a critical perspective on torture in all its dimensions She seeks to capture the peculiarity of an extreme and methodical violence where the tormentor calculates and measures out pain so that he can hold off the victim's death allowing him to continue to exercise his sovereign power For the victim being tortured is like experiencing his own death while he is still alive Torture is a threat wherever the defenceless find themselves in the hands of the strong in prisons in migrant camps in nursing homes in centres for the disabled and in institutions for minors This impassioned book will appeal to students and scholars of philosophy and political theory as well as to anyone committed to defending human rights as universal and inviolable Speaking about Torture Julie A. Carlson, Elisabeth Weber, 2012-09-12 This collection explores torture from the array of approaches offered by the arts and humanities It contends that these disciplines advance the discussion and eradication of torture by speaking about it in terms cognizant of the assaults on truth memory subjectivity and language that the humanities theorize and that experience of torture perpetuates Responsible Governance: A Case Study Approach Steven G. Koven, 2014-12-18 This book is designed to show readers how ethics can constrain improper behavior To demonstrate the relationship of ethics to good government the author presents high profile case studies that were selected for their notoriety and their ability to connect the reader to fundamental ethical questions Themes of public interest natural law and rule of law provide a framework for the case studies which include torture Abu Ghraib impeachment Clinton competence FEMA electoral violation DeLay and historical corruption machine politics The chapters discuss concepts that help to define responsible behavior in terms of behavior in elections honesty and competence and international law

Violent Beginnings Lucie Knight-Santos, 2014-10-24 From a colonial campaign that was envisioned by France as the redemption of its Algerian children through Western civilization to Algerian Independence that was lived by both parties as a bloody divorce recent Algerian history has been imagined and represented in terms of the family Prominent authors such as Kateb Yacine and Mouloud Mammeri pondered their own fate during the War of Independence as the mixed children of a failed colonial marriage Contemporary postcolonial authors such as Rachid Boudjedra Yasmina Salah and Arezki Mellal have filled their narratives with orphaned children searching for ideal parents as a civil war ripped Algeria apart in the 1990s Violent Beginnings Literary Representations of Postcolonial Algeria explores how violence during the War of Independence 1954 1962 to the more recent civil war 1991 2002 has shaped literary representations of both family and nation in contemporary literature For example discussions of the struggle for independence in Assia Djebar's La femme sans sépulture and Ahlam Mostaghanemi's Memory of the Flesh represent sexual torture associated with this earlier war period as having a negative impact on victims ability to have children and contribute to the development of the Algerian nation Texts examining the more recent civil war such as Rachid Boudjedra's La vie l'endroit and Yasmina Salah's Glass Nation establish a link between the earlier violence of the independence struggle and contemporary events Additionally these texts proceed to demonstrate how violence has shaped familial and national structures more specifically causing distorted familial bonds and political chaos in contemporary Algerian society Muslims and Others in Sacred Space Margaret Cormack, 2013 This collection of seven essays offers wide ranging and in depth studies of locations sacred to Muslims of the histories of these sites real or imagined and of the ways in which Muslims and members of other religions have interacted peaceably in sacred times and spaces The volume begins with a discussion by David Damrel of the official hostile Muslim attitude toward practices at shrines in South Asia Lance Laird then presents a case study of a shrine holy to Palestinian Christians who identify its patron as St George as well as to Palestinian Muslims who believe that its patron is al Khadr Ethel Sara Wolper illustrates how al Khadr's patronage was used also to show Muslim connections to Christian sites in Anatolia and JoAnn Gross's essay explores oral and written traditions linking shrines in Tajikistan to traditional Muslim locations and figures A chapter by the late Thomas Sizgorich examines how Christian and Muslim authors used monastic settings to reimagine the relationship between the two religions and Alexandra Cuffel offers a study of attitudes towards the mixing of religious groups in religious festivals in eleventh to sixteenth century Egypt Finally Eric Ross shows how the Layenne Sufi order incorporates a singular combination of Christian and Muslim figures and festivals in its history and practices Muslims and Others in Sacred Space will be an invaluable resource to anyone interested in the complex meanings of sacred sites in Muslim history
