From Zia With Love:

From Zia, with Love ; And, A Scourge of Hyacinths Wole Soyinka, 1992 Unquestionably Africa's most versatile writer and arguably one of her finest. When the Military decrees that a crime carrying a prison sentence now retroactively warrants summary execution, confusion and fear permeate a society where the brutality and injustice of military rule is parodied by life inside prison. Based on events in Nigeria in the early 1980s, Wole Soyinka's stage play From Zia with Love and radio play A Scourge of Hyacinths were produced in the early 90s when the writer was exiled by Sani Abacha's notorious and unjust military regime.

From Zia, with Love Wole Soyinka, 1992 Wole Soyinka Biodun Jeyifo, 2003-11-13 Biodun Jeyifo examines the connections between the innovative and influential writings of Wole Soyinka and his radical political activism. Jeyifo carries out detailed analyses of Soyinka's most ambitious works relating them to the controversies generated by Soyinka's use of literature and theatre for radical political purposes. He gives a fascinating account of the profound but paradoxical affinities and misgivings Soyinka has felt about the significance of the avant garde movements of the twentieth century. Jeyifo also explores Soyinka's works with regard to the impact on his artistic sensibilities of the pervasiveness of representational ambiguity and linguistic exuberance in Yoruba culture. The analyses and evaluations of this study are presented in the context of Soyinka's sustained engagement with the violence of collective experience in post-independence postcolonial Africa and the developing world. No existing study of Soyinka's works and career has attempted such a systematic investigation of their complex relationship to politics.

No Condition Is Permanent Holger G. Ehling, Claus-Peter Holste-von Mutius, 2001 Includes articles, interviews, creative writing and book reviews.

Of Minstrelsy and Masks Christine Matzke, Remi Raji, Geoffrey V. Davis, 2006 This collection is dedicated to a distinguished scholar and writer who for a quarter of a century wrote consistently on African literature and the arts and was a major voice in Nigerian literary circles. Ezenwa Ohaeto made a mark in contemporary Nigerian poetry by committing pidgin to written form and by so doing introducing different creative patterns. He also saw himself as a minstrel as someone who wanted to read, express and enact his work before an audience. First and foremost, however, Ezenwa Ohaeto was someone who unmasked ideas and meanings hidden in the folds of literary works and made them available to an international academic public. With his outstanding work on Chinua Achebe, he influenced the reception of African literary biography. His networks and connections were extensive and wide-ranging, and they are partly reflected in the essays, creative writing and personal notes assembled in this volume. In their various modes and expressions, the contributions included here constitute a tribute to Ezenwa Ohaeto's many talents and achievements. As an extension of Ezenwa Ohaeto's legacy, they expand on various aspects of minstrelsy and the unmasking of texts in a Nigerian and broader African context. The book is divided into six sections. In Memoriam contains personal tributes by long-standing colleagues, mentors and friends. Poetry and Fiction collects the voices of three generations of Nigerian writing from the 1960s to the present day, followed by poetic and pictorial insights into the domestic and social life of the scholar and family man Section Four comprises two interviews while Sections Five and Six are devoted to critical evaluations of Ezenwa Ohaeto's work and to contemporary perspectives on Nigerian literature respectively
