Conflict in the Late Twentieth Century Jonathan Fox,2002-01-01 Jonathan Fox's new work provides the first systematic empirical study of the role that religion plays in ethnic violence. Ethnoreligious Conflict in the Late Twentieth Century critiques the existing literature on religion and ethnic conflict, then presents and analyzes original quantitative data gathered from a variety of sources. Fox draws upon the Minorities at Risk model of ethnic conflict to develop and test a dynamic and comprehensive theory of religion and conflict. He applies this theory to resurgent conflicts between ethnic groups of different religions from the Iranian revolution and the Afghan struggle against the Soviets in the 1980s to the ongoing Middle East conflict to pinpoint the ways in which religion has become intertwined in and lent legitimacy to conflicts in the contemporary world.

This will thus explain how/why such relation is so relevant at any layer of sociality, from affective relationships to social cooperation and interactions to politics and democracy. The approach is theoretical and strongly grounded on cognitive science and the models of human mind, beliefs, desires, expectations, emotions, etc. Written in an accessible way, it will be of interest for a large audience, specifically to researchers and scientists interested in cognitive science and the dynamics of

Seeking Christ David A Jamadar,2022-02-03 This book describes a three to four year period of my many mundane and ordinary interactions through the Holy Spirit interspersed with infrequent dramatic and life changing encounters such as being a conduit for healing For most of these testimonies I have tried to explain what I learned from the experience if anything I have also introduced some discussion about ideas that I have had trouble grasping such as how we as Christians should pray and fast I have also included some probably nontraditional views of mainstream Christianity including an understanding of sin and repentance with the hope that the reader may embrace the option of engaging a different perspective A different perspective does not necessarily mean agreement but rather the willingness to accept that God's ways and understanding of the universe are probably a little different from our own ideas of what we believe are the ways of our Holy Father I use scripture to support my understanding and to a lesser extent my testimonies as best I can I suspect that the scope of the material within is somewhat limited as I look primarily at healing peace prayer demonic influences and my experiences of moving into a non egoic understanding of God My overall approach is not academic but is generally experiential and in places feels almost conversational In the chapter on Prayer however it is primarily didactic I have come to believe that relationship with God through surrender is one way that we may get a glimpse of what it means to live an inclusive Christian life a life from the perspective of love
