Herrington, 2018-01-25 Excerpt from Lennox and Addington Historical Society Vol 10 Papers and Records The Newspapers of the County A Historical Survey of the Newspapers of Lennox and Addington Presented in the Form of Extracts From the Old Files Lennox and Addington did not boast a newspaper as early as many of the other counties of the province That was due to the fact that Kingston was the county town and the press of that place was the first established in Upper Canada and appeared to serve the needs of the people of this part of the old County of Frontenac Lennox and Addington The first publication to enter the field was The Napanee Bee which made its bow to the public on the 2nd of November ad 1860 The editor and proprietor was the Rev G D Greenleaf who resigned the pulpit for the editorial chair and in the rear of the press room spent his spare hours in making and mending furniture In his dual occupation he never quite abandoned his ministerial functions and frequently officiated in the Methodist pulpit on Sundays and regularly padded his columns with lectures on temperance and never missed an opportunity to expose what he conceived to be the weaknesses of the other denominations The Bee was a five column sheet of four pages which was occasionally enlarged to s1x columns when matter was plentiful and orders were not awaiting fulfilment in the cabinet making branch of the establishment The editor found it necessary to apologize at times for reducing its size This was generally due to the scarcity of paper but on one occasion the explanation was as follows One of our printers having taken French leave of us on Sabbath evening and taken sans ceremonie a watch belonging to another from our office our being obliged in consequence to lose a day in catching and properly disposing of the thief and getting back the watch are the principal reasons of our being under the necessity of allowing our sheet to go out in its present appearance About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing
